

HUGHES NOMINATED BY REPUBLICANS AND ACCEPTS

Roosevelt Is Selected By Progressives, Withholds Acceptance

U. S. JUSTICE NAMED ON THE THIRD BALLOT, FAIRBANKS IS CHOSEN AS VICE PRESIDENT

Coliseum, Chicago, June 10.—Charles Evans Hughes, of New York, at present a justice of the United States supreme court, was today nominated president of the United States by the Republican national convention, and Charles Warren Fairbanks, of Indiana, was named for vice president.

Justice Hughes' nomination came on the third ballot of the convention and the first of the day. But one ballot was needed to elect Former Vice President Fairbanks. There were enthusiastic demonstrations after the candidates were named. The Republican convention nominated Mr. Hughes at almost the same minute that the Progressive national convention, meeting at the Auditorium theatre only a few blocks away, named Colonel Theodore Roosevelt to head the third party ticket. Both nominations came after futile attempts to amalgamate the old guard Republicans and the Progressives.

Mr. Hughes' selection as the Republican nominee was almost unanimous on the third ballot and soon after the official vote was announced, it was made unanimous.

Before the convention was called to order it became evident that the justice would be selected. As soon as the balloting began, the favorite son candidates, one by one, withdrew from the race, leaving their pledged delegates to vote as they chose. Practically all of the favorite son state delegations, including Ohio, went solidly for Hughes.

When the roll call was tabulated it was found that Hughes had a total of 940½ votes while Colonel Roosevelt had received only 18½ votes. Weeks received three votes, LaFollette 3, Lodge 7, and DuPont 5. Only one of the delegates was recorded as not voting.

Just before the third ballot, which resulted in Mr. Hughes' nomination a final effort was made by the Progressives to perfect peace with the Republicans. This came in the form of a message from Colonel Roosevelt suggesting that Senator Lodge be made the joint candidate of both parties to lead the fight against the common enemy, the Democrats.

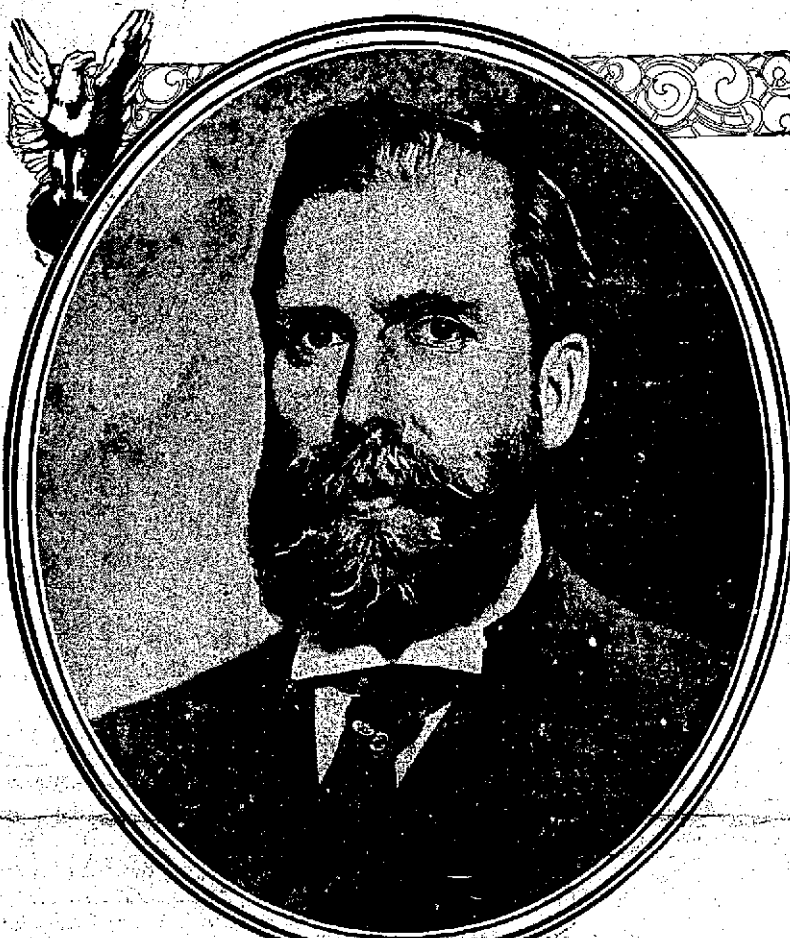

The Republicans were quick to answer by beginning the third roll call. As soon as the first few states had been recorded it became evident that Hughes would be nominated. This was made certain when New Jersey was reached and fell in line for Hughes.

It had been the intention of the convention to recess after nominating Hughes, but the delegates insisted upon continuing with the nomination of a candidate for vice president. There was much talk of Former Senator Burton for the vice presidency but the Ohio delegation announced that it would not present Burton's name for that office. The New York delegation announced that it was about evenly divided between Burton and Fairbanks.

Both names were placed before the convention, and Mr. Fairbanks was selected almost unanimously. Later his nomination was made unanimous.

The Republican convention adjourned at 2:01 p. m.

HUGHES ACCEPTS NOMINATION AND RESIGNS JUSTICESHIP

Washington, D. C., June 10.—Justice Hughes announced his acceptance of the nomination for President at the hands of the Republicans and immediately resigned as Justice of the Supreme Court. President Wilson accepted the resignation.

Washington, D. C., June 10.—Following is the telegram sent by Justice Hughes to Chairman Harding:

"Mr. Chairman and Delegates:

"I have not desired the nomination. I have wished to remain on the bench. But in this critical period in our national history, I recognize that it is your right to summon and that it is my paramount duty to accept."

Peace Efforts Fail And Progressives Nominate Roosevelt By Acclamation

Auditorium, Chicago, June 10.—At practically the same minute that the Republicans were nominating Justice Hughes at the Coliseum, the Progressive national convention today nominated Colonel Theodore Roosevelt as the third party nominee for president of the United States.

The Progressives then recessed their convention until three p. m. without selecting a vice presidential nominee. When the convention reconvenes, it is reported that Ex-Governor Hiram Johnson of California will be selected to be Colonel Roosevelt's running mate.

Eleventh hour efforts to bring the Republicans and Progressives together on a presidential nominee failed. The peace committees appointed by the Progressives reported to the convention the Republicans wished the Progressives to consider the name of Hughes. The answer of the Progressives was to immediately nominate their former standard bearer, Colonel Roosevelt.

When the Progressive convention met the delegates were anxious to nominate Roosevelt immediately, but leaders prevailed upon them to withhold the nomination until the peace conference made its report. One of the features of the convention was the speech of Medill McCormick, former Progressive national committeeman of Illinois, favoring the nomination by the Progressives of Justice Hughes.

Word came that the Republicans at the Coliseum were taking the third ballot and the delegates could be restrained no longer. Bainbridge Colby, of New York, was immediately recognized by Chairman Robins and placed Mr. Roosevelt's name before the convention. The nomination was seconded by Hiram Johnson of California.

Within a minute Former President Roosevelt had been nominated by acclamation—by a long loud vote of "Ayes."

Just as Mr. Roosevelt was nominated, word was received from the Coliseum stating that Hughes had been nominated by the Republicans. The Progressives were making such a demonstration however, that all attempts to notify them of the Republicans' actions were unavailing, and the convention was recessed until three o'clock.

Chicago, June 10.—The Progressive National Convention assembled at 10:30 o'clock with the prospect that Colonel Roosevelt would be nominated almost immediately. After meeting with the republican peace managers the progressive leaders expressed the opinion that the nomination of the colonel was inevitable unless he himself should forbid it.

It was understood that Senator Smoot had submitted a proposal to the progressives which was placed in writing.

While it was felt in some quarters that the progressive convention might nominate Colonel Roosevelt today it was also believed that the nomination of Hughes would not prove wholly objectionable to the progressive leaders and that they might endorse him, Colonel Roosevelt withdrawing if he were named.

Expected Nomination By Acclamation
As the delegates came into the convention hall from their meeting with the progressive peace conference, the delegation chairman was pounced upon by the delegates and got the word that had gone forth that Colonel Roosevelt was to be instantly named and by acclamation with only a formal vote for record purposes.

When the leaders demanded that the convention be immediately convened, Chairman Robins ordered the stage hurriedly cleared. Hurry To Proceed With Nomination
At 10:41 Chairman Robins began pounding his gavel. There was a show of haste to proceed to (Continued On Page Six)

Progressive Nominee

COL. ROOSEVELT

Washington, D. C., June 10.—President Wilson immediately on word that Justice Hughes and Colonel Roosevelt had been nominated by the two conventions in Chicago, was communicated to its receipts here. There was no formal comment but administration supporters were obviously delighted.

MR. ROOSEVELT WITHHOLDS HIS DECISION ON THE NOMINATION

Chicago, June 10.—Colonel Roosevelt advised George W. Perkins, Governor Hiram Johnson and others in conference at Progressive headquarters this afternoon that for the present he would hold in abeyance his decision as to accepting the Progressive nomination. The colonel was preparing a statement to be read later at the convention.

Leaders of the Progressive convention said before the three o'clock session they had heard from Colonel Roosevelt at Oyster Bay and that while he did not flatly refuse the Progressive nomination he indicated reluctance to divide the opposition of the Democrats.

Leaders were asked whether Colonel Roosevelt's message would require any further action by the convention. "I don't know," said one prominent leader.

The message from Colonel Roosevelt did not specifically ask the Progressive convention to reconsider its action in nominating him, it was authoritatively stated, but merely "puts it up to the convention."

Colonel Roosevelt, it was understood, took the position that if he finally found it inadvisable to run the national Progressive convention would complete the vacancy on the ticket.

It was understood that the colonel said he would give careful consideration to the nomination and all reports on the situation.

Washington, D. C., June 10.—Representative Mann, the Republican leader, announced the nomination of Hughes in the house, amid lusty cheering from the handful of Republicans on the floor. Representative Harrison, of Mississippi, Democrat, followed with an announcement of Roosevelt's nomination.

It does seem to me that the gentlemen over in Chicago this week are doing a sight of funny business and sweating around for nothing. What difference does it make who they put up for Wilson's beat—cause that is just what's gonna happen. Nobody is sure on Woodrow but the chaps who want jobs under the G. O. P. But, perhaps that's quite a lot. Here's for tomorrow.

portunity for revision or elision. Brevity is not one of my gifts, either natural or acquired (spite of Western College training) and thus it is—as John Ronyan said in his "Apology for My Book"—"I have simply penned it down, until it came to be, for length and breadth, and bigness, what you see." (Remembering the difficulties under which I have written, dear Madame Editor, if the "bigness" exceeds expectations, please kindly forgive me, just this once!)

The wondrous revelation of beauty, and novelty, in and about Miami, where we spent the month of March; the gayety and glory of Palm Beach, and the wealth of materialized historic lore at St. Augustine, are all tugging at my heart-strings, begging for expression in the pages of the Western Oxford, but I have easily decided that the "summa bonum" of happiness was attained during the "Halcyon Hours in a Southern Florida Hammock"—hence my theme. For days before this great pleasure was mine, I had been "en rapport" with the friendly climate, the golden sunshine, blue skies, and invigorating air of Miami. With my dear husband as a delightful companion, and, Cicero, I had spent hours upon his placid Biscayne bay, and the romantic Miami river, and in auto, carriage, and wheeled chair, had again and again visited the beach, and the many near-by places of interest. "Surely we have seen it all," I said to our good friend residing there, who was the inspirer of our visit, and who was inspiring in her efforts to have us compass all of Miami's attractions. "Indeed you have not," she replied. "I have been saving the best for the last." "And what may it be?" I inquired anxiously. With a charmingly satisfied air, she answered, "It is a visit to Simpson's Hammock, about five miles from here." "To a hammock?" I exclaimed in an undertone, while visions of a swinging net on a spacious veranda, or in some shady nook prompted a surprised interrogation, which I fortunately suppressed. I had learned to be very wary about exposing my ignorance, as I was far from "au fait" with Dixie's new and unheard of terms. Probably "you all" up-to-date folks will not be as much surprised as I was to learn that in Southern phraseology "hammock" is a polite name for a dense jungle—wherein grow all things beautiful, but in wild and impenetrable confusion. Our friend explained that the wonderful hammock which she had arranged for us to visit the next day had been made penetrable and transformed into a "wilderness of sweets" by the skillful hand and the ardent love of Mr. Chas. T. Simpson, such a devotee as even Nature rarely finds. About ten years ago, Mr. Simpson, who had long been connected with the Smithsonian Institution at Washington, resigned his position there and decided to indulge, in his later years, his life dream, viz., to spend his energies and means in the cultivation of the strange and beautiful vegetation of the tropics, in a land of perpetual summer. Before deciding upon his location, he visited Cuba, Haiti, Jamaica, and the Bahamas, where he found richer soil and a more tropical climate than in southern Florida—"but alas!" he said, "a line of the old missionary hymn was constantly in my mind—where every prospect pleases, and only man is vile." On the banks of Biscayne bay, within easy reach of Florida's most beautiful city—Miami—he found his ideal hammock, fifteen acres, upon which nature had bestowed rich gifts more than a hundred different species of rare and ornamental trees and shrubs, which in many places had become veritable air-gardens, loaded even to the breaking point with exquisite orchids and other epiphytic plants. There were flowers everywhere, new and strange, of choicest hue and fragrance, the seeds of which had evidently been brought from the West Indies by the Gulf Stream, and by birds and the wind. And now, after ten years of unremitting labor, at great expense, he has made of it an enchanted land, to which every lover of nature is welcome

"without money and without price." Our friend was right when she said, "You will simply rave over it." A new world it seemed, filled with beauty of which I had never dreamed, truly a foretaste of Paradise, and looking up after, seeing the birds in the tree-tops—their lofty herbage—tiny as humming birds by reason of distance, it seemed as if there were two lovely worlds, we in one, and they in another. A perfect labyrinth of footpaths wind in and out, beneath interlacing branches, laden with fragrant orchids, exquisite vines and ferns. Moss and lichens cover every rock while the insect orchestra vie with the birds in carrying their part in Nature's grand harmony. The longing of the poet Cowper for "a lodge in some vast wilderness" came to my mind, and I thought were he here, in these troublous times, how he would glory in this enchanted retreat, "where rumor of oppression and deceit, of unsuccessful war might never reach me more." Resting by one of the many fairy-like pools with which Mr. Simpson has adorned the hammock, it was lovely to see the dainty and lithero unknown flowers creep up and drink at the edge of the water and to note how these gems of the hammock were either retreating to the seed, advancing to the bud, or shaking their sweet, full-blown blossoms to the balmy breeze. The palms, princes of the vegetable kingdom, were there in all their glory. The Royal palm, a lordly tree indeed, majestic, awe-inspiring, seeming almost to partake of the divine character of its Creator; the Coccoloba palm; "a marvel of Titanic grace," with hosts of juicy nuts smuggled about its protecting crown; the Washingtonia, the Cabbage palm, beautiful in everything but name, its trunk covered with split-leaved stalks, or "boots" as they are called; the exquisite Fan-leaved palm, the upper sides of the leaves a rich, glossy green, and the underside the loveliest silvery color imaginable. Many varieties of these regal trees have honored places in the hammock. The stately pines are there also, "lowering to the skies." Two remarkable specimens of nearly equal size stand about forty feet apart, in front of Mr. Simpson's house, and because of their soldierly bearing he calls them "the sentinels."

"The King of flowering trees is the Royal Poinsettia. We were a little too early to see it in its greatest splendor. Its leaves, of delicate green, come out about the middle of April. At the same time the tree is covered with great masses of bloom, each flower being four inches and more in diameter, the outside of the petals yellow, and inside red. (We enjoyed visiting its namesake, the Royal Poinsettia Hotel at Palm Beach—the largest in the world—and also the worthy namesake of the Royal Palm, Miami's finest hotel.)

The live oaks in which the hammock abounds were of great interest to us—in some instances their shiny canopies of green, with the hoary Spanish moss trailing gracefully below, and at other times another "affinity," the wild grape vine, hangs in long streamers about it, in a perfectly "at home" manner, and withal strikingly beautiful.

We cannot pass the many varieties of the hammock without a word, for they excited from us many "Oh's" and "Ah's." One of these is the wild rubber tree, or strangler, whose seeds, dropped by birds high up on the trees, germinate and send down roots to the ground, which form a tangled network until the captured tree literally becomes strangled, and dies. Another great curiosity was the candle tree, bearing a cylindrical yellow fruit which looks exactly like a candle. The silk-cotton tree, another curiosity, bears tiny seeds, which I have carefully planted, and if the crop is good the Western shall have "a finger in the pie." We stood before those strange, lovely epiphytic plants, the orchids, of which Mr. Simpson has more than seventy varieties, in silent admiration, akin indeed to adoration. Some in robes of purest white, and others in tints not elsewhere found on earth, it was easy to imagine that they had winged their way down from among the angels. Such sights are not for the eye alone. They enter the soul, nor does it require aid from that supreme architect, the imagination, to fashion forth the paradise on high!

I cannot tell you how hard it

Perhaps the handsomest of the many rare vines in the hammock is the Bignon, bearing superb flowers of vivid orange-scarlet hue. The Bouganvillea is another showy vine, laden continually with dazzling purple bracts and brick-red flowers. A trailing vine of special interest was the "Overlook Peas," which Mr. Simpson jealously said was his sole protection from marauders. He had imported it from the West Indies, where every black man regards its presence in his garden as absolutely necessary to protect it from being "overlooked," by which they mean bewitched by the "evil eye."

Among all these aristocratic curiosities, it was pleasant to find some good, familiar friends, such as the woodbine and the morning glory, the former mounting to the top of loftiest pines and, true to its nature, even without the aid of frost, taking on in February the rich crimson which is its wont in October at the North. Our dear old morning glory also seemed determined not to be deemed plebeian. Its leaves looked like they were newly varnished, its flowers had taken on a golden hue, and as for climbing, it seemed to have "hitched its wagon to a star." Mr. Simpson said it took the lead in profuseness of bloom, and that on one vine which he had watched he believed a million flowers had opened every day for six weeks.

I have said nothing of the fruit trees, but memory lingers fondly over the luscious cherries, if they did grow on an evergreen bush. We did not wait to be invited, but helped ourselves, they were so abundant. They are larger than ours, with handsomely grooved sides. I admired them so much that I brought home some of the tiny seeds, which I have carefully planted, and if the crop is good the Western shall have "a finger in the pie." We stood before those strange, lovely epiphytic plants, the orchids, of which Mr. Simpson has more than seventy varieties, in silent admiration, akin indeed to adoration. Some in robes of purest white, and others in tints not elsewhere found on earth, it was easy to imagine that they had winged their way down from among the angels. Such sights are not for the eye alone. They enter the soul, nor does it require aid from that supreme architect, the imagination, to fashion forth the paradise on high!

was to leave this Mysium, nor what joy it gave us to see Mr. Simpson's noble face light up with perfect satisfaction as he told us his "dream" had been more than realized—and how he loved to wander among "those dear things," to watch the dainty buds breaking, and feel with reverence, devotion, and gratitude that he was part and parcel of it all. The Luthier Burbank of the Southland is Charles T. Simpson truly, of whom they may well be proud, as indeed they are, for he has proven what Time can do if it only holds in its bosom Love.

Y. W. C. A. WILL HAVE MOVING PICTURE MADE

The Young Women's Christian Association is to have a Moving Picture made of local people and local industries, which is to be an advertisement for the Y. W. C. A. and the city of Portsmouth, in general.

The picture is to be called "Peerless Portsmouth" and photographed during the week of June 28th. It will be ready to be shown on the screen at the Columbia some time during the week of July 10th.

As soon as the officers of the Y. W. C. A. have the candidates ready, which will be some time next week, The Times will run a voting contest to determine who the leading man and lady will be.

The officers of the Y. W. C. A. have secured directors who have had wide experience in coaching and directing amateurs, to direct the picture for them.

Defendants Answer

Separate answers of the Chesapeake and Ohio Northern Railway and the Langhorns, Langhorns and Sneed Company, party defendants in the suits for damages filed in common pleas court by Henry D. and George Bahner, George Bahner and David Bahner were filed Saturday by Attorneys Bannan and Bannan and Will J. Meyer. Sweeping denials were made of the allegations set forth in the petitions.

Overland
Six $1145
45 horsepower 125 in. wheelbase 7 passengers 35" x 46" tires
J. B. Toledo

Production and Price

Do the great variety of Sixes and the fluctuating prices seem confusing and perplexing?

Let's reason it out.

What controls price? Production.

As a manufacturer's production increases, his production cost, per car, decreases.

Therefore the plant with the largest production is in a position to give more of everything and charge less for it.

We are the world's largest producers of Six and Four Cylinder Automobiles.

Consequently you get in the Overland Six a larger and more powerful motor—a longer wheelbase—the convenience of electric control buttons on the steering column and an almost endless list of other comforts and refinements.

—yet what is the price?

Not $1200 or $1300 but $1145.

And when it comes to a Six Cylinder performance, remember the Overland Six is the star of them all.

One ride will convince you.

Claims Husband Used Her Savings To Gamble; Is Seeking A Divorce

Claiming that her husband, Walter Cade, compelled her to surrender her savings for the purpose of gambling and playing poker, and that he was guilty of extreme cruelty, Marie Cade, through her attorneys, Blair and Kimble, filed suit for divorce Saturday in the court of common pleas. Marie Cade says she was married to the defendant January 1, 1916, and that her husband is capable of earning good wages at the Whitaker-Glessner Steel plant.

A temporary injunction was allowed against the Whitaker-Glessner Steel Company by Judge Thomas, restraining the defendant from obtaining his wages.

Street Cars May Cross Lawson Run Viaduct

Mr. Levi D. York, president of the street railway company, upon invitation of the city board of control, appeared before that body Saturday to explain his company's attitude with regard to the laying of street car tracks across the new Lawson Run viaduct.

Mr. York told the board that there was no existing agreement between the company and the N. & W. railway, in fact the company could not make any until some other matters were first eliminated, particularly not until the company was relieved of its New Eighth street and Kendall avenue franchise, which still has seventeen years to run. He said that some time before the contract for the viaduct was let the N. & W. agreed to put street car tracks on the viaduct as a partial compensation for the street railway abandoning its Eighth and Kendall avenue line. After the contract was let it was found it would be illegal to include the laying of tracks in the contract but it was still the street railway company's understanding that the tracks were to be put there. The city has a maximum amount it is to pay on the viaduct and the street railway officials felt the N. & W. should assume the extra cost of laying the tracks. The street railway, he said, cannot cease operating its Eighth or Kendall avenue line until the city passes new legislation.

The board officials declared themselves as interested only in seeing to it that the street car tracks are laid on the viaduct for future use as always intended, saying that they believed such to be one of the main purposes of the new structure and that they were anxious to have the work done early thereby removing the necessity of tearing up the paving later.

The paving work had been temporarily stopped recently upon orders from the board pending an adjustment of the matter at issue.

After hearing from Mr. York the board referred the matter to City Solicitor Anselm Skelton and the attorneys of the N. & W. railway, Bannan & Bannan for adjustment. The approaches of the viaduct will not be paved this year in order to allow them to properly settle and instead will be macadamized for the present.

NEW SUPT. FOR LUCASVILLE SCHOOLS, BOARD DISAGREES WITH COUNTY SUPT.

Lucasville, O., June 10.—(Special to Times)—The Valley township board of education met in adjourned session here Friday, for the purpose of electing a superintendent for the ensuing year.

Members present were: A. F. Miller, John Violet, William Glaze, and J. H. Brant, also Superintendent E. O. McCowen. President J. W. Clemmons being absent, Vice President A. F. Miller filled the chair.

After some preliminary business was disposed of the applications for the office of superintendent were read as follows:

Robert L. Meeks, Portsmouth, Ohio; Don C. Baird, Athens, Ohio; Paul E. Kromer, Lucasville, Ohio; W. L. Hostetter, Peebles, Ohio; G. W. Duckwall, Grove City, Ohio; E. L. Terman, Grand Rapids, Ohio; J. D. Law, Commercial Point, O.

After these were read Superintendent McCowen said there were two or three of these that he would nominate, and asked the board if they had any choice.

Professor Meeks for three years a teacher in the Portsmouth high school, was named as their choice. Superintendent McCowen said he did not care to nominate Professor Meeks at this meeting, but said he might nominate him at some future meeting.

Professor Meek's application had been on file for the past two weeks. Professor McCowen was at the meeting two weeks prior when Professor Meeks was present, presented his application and explained his position and defined his methods as a superintendent.

During these two weeks a majority of the board have investigated Professor Meeks, talking directly with other teachers of the Portsmouth high school, with students who resided to him and with the parents of these students, not one but a half a dozen or more, and they failed to find one single objection against Professor Meeks, which is one of the most desirable qualifications of a superintendent.

Mr. Glaze said he was anxious to elect at this meeting, as no high school teachers had been selected, and we needed the help of the superintendent in selecting these. Superintendent McCowen was again asked if he would nominate Professor Meeks and in reply said he had no idea that the board would select Professor Meeks and that he would not nominate him at this meeting, but might nominate him at some future meeting.

Mr. Glaze then made a motion to elect Professor Meeks and he was elected unanimously. Superintendent McCowen got up and pronounced the proceedings not according to law, and in the discussion that followed it was made plain that a majority of the board reserved the intention whether they had a right to or not to predominate in the selection of their superintendent, and in this they are backed by a majority of the people in the township. They have maintained that right in the past and at present the school ranked first in the state as a rural high school.

Superintendent McCowen immediately notified the board that as he did not make the nomination, he would not be held responsible for acts of the superintendent or success or failure of the school, and wanted it made known to the community that the reason why he would not be held responsible was that both a majority of the board and the township manifested a disposition to refuse the assistance that he might give, and the power vested in him by law, and that he should not be held responsible.

A majority of the board assured him that they would relieve him from all responsibility. Superintendent McCowen then notified the board that if he was to be eliminated from their proceedings, that the schools of Valley township would be denied all privileges accorded to the other schools in the county, such as spelling contests, oratorical contests, debates—in fact be denied all educational privileges that present themselves to the county.

He did not say, but it was presumed, that the teachers in Valley township would be denied the privilege of attending the county institute.

Since one of the members of the Valley township board is also a

BAPTISTS ARE TO BUILD FINE NEW CHURCH HOME

At a meeting of the trustees of the First Baptist church Friday evening it was definitely decided to build a new church on their present site, Gallia and Waller streets. The approximate cost is $25,000 and a contract to draw the plans and specifications was awarded to Architects Rittner and Bates of this city.

The building is to be built of brick and terra cotta, will have a basement under the entire building, to be used as a Sunday school room, and there will be a balcony on the first floor, which will also be used as Sunday school rooms. The auditorium proper is to have a seating capacity of 1,200. The plans will call for an ornate structure designed along Gothic lines.

NEW BOSTON

At the adjourned session of the school board Friday evening the entire board, clerk and superintendent, decided to make a trip to Huntington, W. Va., next Wednesday on invitation of Rittner and Bates, local architects who will show the members the splendid schools in Huntington. Miss Lunata Harr graduate of New Boston and Portsmouth high schools and daughter of Councilman W. T. Harr of Ohio avenue was named as teacher in the schools upon the recommendation of Supt. D. E. Ross. Miss Harr was the only new teacher hired. She takes the place of Miss Grace Schoonover, teacher, who leaves the village after this year. The old list of teachers follows:

J. F. Warner, principal high school; Gertrude Schmidt, music director; Edna Geist, N. E. Riecke, Clifford Shinner, Vernon Smith, Charles E. Fritz, Edith Wilson, Lucy McCormick, Bessie Aeh, Myrtle Thomas, Etta McCarty, Gussie Holmes, Alma Davisson was approved on Supt. Ross' recommendation. Applications were also received from Marie Noel, Ohio University student of Scioto Trail who is a domestic science teacher; J. E. Shaner of the village; Marie Jones, Wheelersburg; Nellie Barney, Wheelersburg; Ida P. Moore, Youngs, O.; J. E. Shaner will probably be named as teacher for the Lakeside school as soon as the school is turned over to the local board by Porter township. Clerk O'Neal reported that the county prosecutor would look up the matter of the school being turned over to the local board and that a report would be ready at the next meeting. The Schmidt-Watkins company was awarded a bill of $554.25 for extra work in installing lights and plumbing work in the two schools.

It is not customary for the board of education to pay for flowers worn by graduating students, but a bill was allowed for $6.25 for flowers for commencement exercises. A bill of $254.24 for Devoss and Donaldson, architects was held up until a final investigation is made of the leaks in the roof at the Stanton avenue school auditorium. The teachers, janitors and transient to the officer's pay roll was allowed. A park nearly every night. Dever resolution was passed deeming it necessary to have a $65,000 bond issue election for the purpose of purchasing a sight and building a high school. The election will be held at the August primaries on August 8. The building committee was instructed to have the Stanton avenue school auditorium painted. The paint is already on hand.

they were arrested by Park Officers Henry Koger and George Dever, on charges of disorderly conduct. On their way to jail Price broke away from Dever and started to run, but the officer stuck out his foot and tripped him. Price tore a hole in the knee of his trousers in the fall. The officer fell on top of him. They were released from jail about 11 o'clock Thursday night.

Rolla Sheets, arrested several days ago and taken into Squire William McManes' court, was released when the plaintiff, Mrs. Martha McManes, failed to appear against him. Three charges, assault with intent to wound, threatening to kill and breach of peace were filed against Sheets by the McManes woman, who lives in Breckory Hollow.

Marshall W. I. Davis and Deputy Ike Wells returned Friday night from Cincinnati where they took Ralph York, Arthur and Walter Hassell to the workhouse.

William Canter, Gallia street grocer, has found the increase of business so rapid that he has been forced to place an order for a second motor truck.

John Dielman, steel mill employee of Gallia street, is suffering with a fractured left rib sustained when he fell on the hill back of his home recently.

Grandpa Wells. Doesn't that sound funny? That is what Deputy Marshall Ike Wells is constantly hearing since a baby son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Mills of Stewartsville. Mrs. Mills is a daughter of Officer Wells.

Herman Coakrell believes in keeping abreast with the times. He has purchased a Rapid motor truck that he will use in his moving business.

Taylor Henson, Ohio avenue grocer, has purchased a delivery outfit from John Briggs, horse trader.

Robert Poole, school teacher who taught last term at the Leatherswood school near Buena Vista will teach at the Manns Run school next term. George Dever, park policeman, was called upon by Frank Henderson of the city Friday to put a stop to his fourteen year old daughter "hanging about" the Stanton avenue school auditorium. The girl has been running away from home and going to the officer's pay roll was allowed. A park nearly every night. Dever resolution was passed deeming it necessary to have a $65,000 bond issue election for the purpose of purchasing a sight and building a high school. The election will be held at the August primaries on August 8. The building committee was instructed to have the Stanton avenue school auditorium painted. The paint is already on hand.

Quarreled Over Boy

Quite a stir was created at the B. & O. passenger depot Saturday afternoon by a young couple quarreling over the possession of a fine little blue-eyed boy.

The couple proved to be John C. Smith, a millworker of No. 522 Fifth street and wife, Mrs. Verla Smith. She was leaving her husband, accompanying her mother, Mrs. Mary Bitner to the latter's home in Keyser, W. Va., and Smith tried to keep her from taking their two year old son, Charles. Patrolman Armour Platt listened to both and advised Smith not to interfere. Mrs. Smith accused her husband of mistreating her. She had only recently undergone a serious surgical operation.

TRADE REVIEW

IN LOCAL FIELDS

Cincinnati, June 10.—Trade conditions as found in the Cincinnati, Lexington, Ky., Richmond, Ind., and Portsmouth, Ohio, fields and vicinity by the reporters under the direction of Bradstreet are contained in the following review issued by Bradstreet: Lexington, Ky.

Dealers in all lines report a decided increase in sales over 1915. Lumber selling at a higher figure than it has been for some years, is in strong demand, and collections are good. In the coal line, the domestic trade is about normal, but the sale of steam exceeds 1915 by fully 50 per cent. Collections are satisfactory. Dry goods and grocery jobbers are enjoying a good business and collections are reported good.

Crops are in good condition.

Portsmouth, Ohio. Wholesale Groceries: Business still very good and ahead of last year. Collections are about normal.

Shoe manufacturers report orders still coming in ahead of last year. Collections are good with exceptions noted in Wisconsin and Georgia. From all indications now factories here will run full time through fall season on orders now booked.

Wholesale lumber report business getting brisk, collections are about normal.

In the retail trade grocers in certain sections of the town are complaining of slow collections.

Wholesale Produce: Business as a whole is reported very good with an abundance of all kinds of produce, prices are low. Collections good.

Richmond, Ind.

The Lawn Mower business is very brisk owing to general rains throughout the country and the loss of foreign business will not be felt so much this year as last.

Shortage of steel products continues to be felt in this line. One local machine manufacturer reports business ahead of any previous year. No foreign or war orders are accepted and all output is for domestic trade. Men of skill in this line are at a premium.

Wholesale groceries report prices steady this week. No material advance in any product.

Real estate market fairly brisk. Building operations are said to be more lively. Residences of between $5,000 and $15,000 being predominating operations. Labor conditions are very satisfactory, there being no strikes or labor trouble whatever.

Retail dealers in all lines are very optimistic over the outlook for a prosperous season.

Cincinnati, Ohio

Retail trade in general normal. Jobbers report a fair demand for dry goods, notions, gent's furnishings. Wholesale saddlery and harness report increase in volume of business over corresponding period of last year, with collections fair. Sales of jewelry increasing; collections are somewhat slow. Coal for by-product purposes continues in strong demand with a good call for all grades of steam coal and domestic sizes are the only grades that show any tendency to drop, but this is the usual condition of domestic trade at this time of the year. Building is active. Dealers in hardware say business is improving. Grocers report trade good. Wholesale paper houses note a decreased demand and anticipate a slackening until the fall season opens. Manufacturers of shoes report a continuance of good business, even in the face of advanced prices. Clothing manufacturers have received large orders for early fall delivery and expect but little cancellation. Carriage and buggy manufacturers report the largest volume of business this Spring than for many years previous. Experiencing difficulty in obtaining material, especially in the iron and steel line. Factories are working at fullest capacity. One local concern received a contract for 15,000 buggy bodies. An Evansville concern is turning out 375 buggies daily and working 22 hours a day. Collections good. Foundries report working at fullest capacity; same as previous week and no outlook for any slackening up. Collections good. This holds good in all allied machinery trade.

A REVIEW OF THE WEEK'S MARKETS

New York, June 10.—Politics naturally assumed first place in the financial district, the situation in Chicago being the all prevailing feature of interest. At the close of business yesterday Wall Street seemed in a state of bewilderment respecting the outcome.

On the surface the market, which was left almost entirely to the devices of professional traders, suggested confidence in a coming together of the contending parties. Stability was given to the list by the strength of railway issues, particularly high grade shares, which hardened in response to further brilliant statements of earnings. There was also confident buying of representative industrial, including U. S. Steel, whose May statement of unfilled tonnage to be issued today is expected to establish a new high record.

Reactionary movements in the motors and allied issues were attributed to the more cautious attitude of the banks, which have manifested their disapproval of the movement in these shares. A temporary flurry in call loans to the highest quotation in a year and a half also hastened liquidation in weak quarters. Coppers and metals in general were little more than steady, despite the declaration of many larger dividends warranted by vastly increased earnings. Miscellaneous shares were mostly higher but their advance with few exceptions failed to enlist outside interest or support.

Foreign developments contributed to firmer tendencies, the success of the Russian forces against Austria-Hungary and more details of last week's naval engagement in the North Sea being reflected in the rise of British consols. International issues moved irregularly in this market, but showed a firm undertone, considering the extent of the offerings.

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, June 10.—Stocks opened with some show of strength today but changed their course before the end of the brief session when leading issues fell variably under final prices of the preceding session. The closing was irregular. Bonds were steady.

The uncertainty attending latest developments in the political situation was reflected in the resituation at today's opening. Trading was light, most transactions being in small lots. The one exception was United States Steel, in which the initial offering consisted of 1500 shares at $6 1/2 to 7, virtually unchanged from yesterday's final quotation. There were minor advances in other active issues, declines in Reading and Chesapeake and Ohio Railways.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Chicago, June 10.—Unresponsive foreign markets today turned wheat prices here down. Opening quotations which ranged from 3/4 to 1c lower with July at $1.08 1/2 to $1.07 1/4 and Sept. at $1.08 1/2 to $1.08 1/4, were followed by a material further decline.

Corn weakened with wheat. After opening 1/4c off to 1/2c up, the market hardened a little, but then sagged decidedly all around. Oats eased off, influenced by the bearish action of other grain. Lack of support caused declines in provisions. Activity was confined chiefly to lard.

The close was heavy, 2 3/4 to 1 1/2c net lower, with July at 104 3/4 and Sept. at $1.08 1/4.

The close was unsettled at 3/4 to 7/8c net decline.

OPENING

Chicago, June 10.—Wheat: July $1.07 1/4; Dec. $1.08 1/2; Sept. $1.08 1/2; Corn: July 71 3/4; Sept. 76 1/4; Oats: July 39 3/4; Sept. 35 3/4.

CLOSING PRICES

Chicago, June 10.—Wheat: July $1.04 3/4; Sept. $1.06 1/4; Corn: July 71 1/2; Sept. 70c; Oats: July 39 1/2; Sept. 35 3/4.

PROVISIONS CLOSE

Pork: July, $21.67; Sept. $21.25.
Lard: July, $12.42; Sept. $12.52.
Ribs: July, $12.47; Sept. $12.55.

LIVE STOCK MARKET

CHICAGO

Chicago, June 10.—Hogs: receipts, 12,000; unsettled; bulk, $9.30@9.50; light, $8.80@9.45; mixed, $9.05@9.55; heavy, $9.00@9.60; rough, $9.00@9.15; pigs, $6.55@8.00.

Patrolmen Frank Millhoff and Joe Stokley had an exciting chase after a couple of brass thieves Saturday afternoon and got so uncomfortably close to them that the thieves abandoned a horse and buggy, which is now at Bridges' livery stable for safe-keeping.

The police had gotten a "tip" that the two men had been seen at the N. & W. Terminals loading a buggy with brass. Clerk Harry Johnson, after notifying patrolmen and junk dealers to remain on a lookout, started for East Portsmouth with the patrol. The description given stated it was an iron gray horse, when in fact the animal driven by the two men was a roan and Johnson probably passed them on the way. Word was received that the men were at a downtown junk shop. As Millhoff and Stokley approached they whipped up the horse and drove down Third street at break-neck speed. The officers boarded a passing automobile and gave chase. The men leaped from the buggy in front of Dr. Jos. Gill's home and disappeared in an adjacent alley. Millhoff trailed one of them to Sixth and Court street, the yellow clad him by darting into a stable and leaping from the second story. The brass had not yet been removed from the buggy.

"SHOEMAKERS DAY," MILLBROOK SATURDAY JUNE 17

Shoe Manufacturers Give Hearty Consent, Great Time Expected

What is expected to be the biggest day in a baseball sense that ever occurred in the Ohio State League, will be held at Millbrook park on next Saturday afternoon, June 17.

When Portsmouth secured a franchise in the O. S. L. some nine years ago, the club was christened "Shoemakers." This name was given the team for two reasons. First, because the club owners wanted to recognize Portsmouth's leading industry, and second, because the shoe manufacturers looked upon the entry of Portsmouth into professional baseball circles with friendly eyes.

Ever since Portsmouth secured a franchise in the league, the club owners have never appealed to the shoe manufacturers in vain. Messrs. Selby, Drew and Williams have ever been ready with an open purse to assist in financing the team. And this year these gentlemen came forward handsomely in helping to raise the "guarantee fund," donating $400.00 (over half of which was given by the Selby Shoe Co.) thus showing they were vitally interested in keeping the team in this city. They are ever interested in the welfare of their employees and they are willing to do even more than their share in keeping the institution of baseball on a high level.

All of which brings the proposition of holding "Shoemakers' Day" on next Saturday afternoon.

Messrs. Selby, Williams and Drew were approached by a committee on Thursday afternoon. They willingly agreed to a committee, consisting of Mark W. Selby, John E. Williams and Gene Crichton to confer with representatives of the local club. The meeting was held at the Elk parlors, and the committee from the local club was made to feel at once that the shoe factories would go the extra mile in helping to make "Shoemakers' Day" the biggest affair of its kind ever held in minor league circles.

There is little use to recount the fact that the attendance at Millbrook Park has been below expectations, despite the fact that 99 per cent of the fans declare the team to be the best since entrance was made in the league. Why the crowds are slim is past finding out. Certain it is that the club is composed of as good a bunch of athletes as ever show down salaries. All sorts of excuses have been offered, as many as there are cold cures. But be that as it may, what has been lacking in attendance and spirit will be made up on next Saturday, when it is thought fully 3,000 people, and then some, will be at Millbrook Park. In the first place, the local Club owners have issued a decree admitting all children up to 16 years of age absolutely free of charge. My, don't young America be out in full force. Second, the club owners will have a special ticket printed giving all shoe workers and those employed in shoe factories, the privilege of the park at 25 cents a throw. In other words, 25 cents will include grand stand and reserved seats. And now for the ball game. At an enthusiastic meeting of the committee held at the First National Bank building last night, tentative plans were laid for a game between the employees of the Selby Shoe Co. on one side and a team composed of the Excelsior and Irving Drew players on the other. It may be that the teams will be composed of players who formerly saw service in the Saturday Afternoon League, and then, again, it may be decided to plan a game between the stockholders of the three big concerns. Wouldn't it be a treat to see Mr. George D. Selby in spikes and uniform, battling against the "elusive" curves sent over the plate by Mr. Irving Drew? Or wouldn't it be an incident long to be remembered to behold John E. Williams taking a swing at the Spalding as sent upward by Supt. W. W. Gates? Wouldn't the spectators yell as they saw Wade Kennedy trying to steal second base off Grant Williams? Well, it may be that the committee will arrange such a game, and then they may decide to pit the foremen against each other. Anyhow, no matter what is finally decided, bear in mind that "Shoemakers' Day," Saturday, June 17, is going to be one grand occasion, one that will be remembered for many years to come.

The shoe manufacturers have entered into the spirit of the affair with such genuine whole heartedness that the success of the occasion was decided at the very outset.

Mark W. Selby, member of the original committee, said: "Count on the Selby Shoe Co. for anything you want—we are with the proposition from beginning to end, and will lend all assistance within our power to make the day one long to be remembered."

John E. Williams, of the Excelsior Shoe Co., said: "I am quite sure that practically every one of our employees will be in attendance on Shoemakers' Day. I know we are all interested in the welfare of the splendid team and we will do our part towards sustaining the sport. Count us in on anything to boost the game."

Gene Crichton, speaking for the Irving Drew Shoe Co., said: "I am quite sure the Irving Drew Shoe Co. will do its share toward making Shoemakers' Day one long to be remembered."

"You can rest assured that the Excelsior and Irving Drew plants will recruit a team that will make the Selby outfit step aside."

With such a manifestation of spirit, no one can question the success of the day.

At the conclusion of the committee meeting held last night, Mr. Crichton stated that another meeting would be held on Monday evening, at which time a regular program will be mapped out. Mr. Crichton stated that every person present last night was heart and soul in making "Shoemakers' Day" the greatest event of its kind in the local athletic world. He is sanguine that more than 4,000 people will be present, in which event the financial status of the local team of the O. S. L. will be placed on such a solid basis that there would be no question about finishing the season in fine shape. Incidentally, if the day comes up to expectations, the local club owners will pull off several similar events, such as "Merchants' Day," "Grocers' and Butchers' Day," "Masque Day," etc.

It should be borne in mind that at the conclusion of the game between the three shoe factories a contest between the Champs and the Frankfort team will be played.

Next week committees will be named by the various shoe factories to conduct a ticket sale. It is the present intention of having two persons, on each factory floor well supplied with the pastebords.

Let everybody get busy and help boost for "Shoemakers' Day!"

Special Song Services At The First Christian

Mrs. J. D. Tuning, of Huntington, W. Va., choir director at the First Christian church, reports some splendid songs at all services tomorrow. She states that every number will be a special one and that a pleasant surprise awaits all who attend.

Incidentally, Supt. Chas. M. Howard comes forth with the statement that the school is in the best possible shape, numerically, spiritually and financially and he sees no good reason why less than 1000 should be present at bible school. All that is needed, he says, is a fair break with the weather—"fair" is a good word these days, though seldom used in describing the weather. Fair or foul, however, will not keep home the faithful ones. Eight hundred of these can be counted upon with all sorts of certainty.

Much interest is being taken in the "Mutt" and "Jeff" contest in the Loyal Sons class. Every "Mutt" and likewise every "Jeff" should be present promptly on time. Incidentally it is said challenges will be hurled forth right and left tomorrow. Come and help accept them.

Rev. Charles R. Oakley, pastor of the "church of the cordial welcome," will preach both morning and evening. His subject at 10:30 a. m. will be "A Drawing Preacher," while in the evening at 7:30 he will preach on the subject, "Fulfilling Righteousness." A most hearty welcome awaits you to any and all services.

Expert Swimmer Was "Torpedoed"

"Say, the guy that told me I was going down and was yelling for help in the Ohio river yesterday, certainly did me an injustice," Philip Lynch, of the Metropolitan Shows, stated Saturday.

"To bluff one of the boys with the show who said I couldn't swim the Ohio, I peeled off my clothes and plunged into the Ohio and was swimming it easily when within 50 feet of the Kentucky shore I was 'torpedoed or submerged' by a big piece of wood. My left arm was cut, and when I raised it out of the water some mutt thought I was signalling for help. Any time one of Uncle Sam's sailors can't swim the Ohio he had better turn in his uniform. As for the Mississippi or Frisco Bay, that's another story."

TEACHER WILL ATTEND DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Took Lubricating Oil Instead Of Olive Oil, Pierron Now "Oil" Right

Theo. Pierron, well known brewery agent suffered excruciating pain for an hour or two Friday evening the result of taking machine oil for olive oil. He swallowed a large portion of the machine oil, and it was not until severe pains seized him that he made an investigation, which soon showed that he had mistaken a bottle of machine oil for olive oil.

Dr. Walter Braunlin was called and he was forced to use a stomach pump so serious was Mr. Pierron's condition. He was at his office on Tenth street when he swallowed the oil and it was some little time before he could be removed to his home on Ninth street. He was out of danger Saturday.

SOCIETY

Mrs. John F. Brushart entertained with a beautiful pink rose luncheon today, at one o'clock, at her home on Second street, to announce the engagement of one of Portsmouth's most charming and popular young women, Miss Pauline Louise Wilhelm, daughter of Mr. George Wilhelm, of Second street, and Mr. Edwin Starling Pearce, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Pearce, of Ninth street. The long table was exquisitely adorned with a large cut-glass bowl filled with pink rambling roses, and branches of these lovely roses covered the snowy cloth through the center of the table. Covers were laid for twelve: Miss Wilhelm, Mrs. Brushart, Miss Mary Anderson, Miss Gertrude Schmidt, Miss Teresa Kennedy, Mrs. Morton Shawway, Miss Hazel Drew, Mrs. John Brushart, Mrs. A. H. To Piss, Miss Madeline Baird, Mrs. E. Ainger Powell, Mrs. Howard Newman and Miss Grace Wilhelm. The places were marked with cards adorned with an engagement ring.

The favors to the guests were small white satin slippers filled with almonds, and the bride's favor was a dainty doll attired as a bride. The elegant menu was beautifully served in five courses, the color tone being pink and white, and the bon-bons were white with decorations of dainty flowers on the top. The wedding will take place the first week in August. Miss Wilhelm and Mr. Pearce have been sweethearts since childhood. The bride-to-be is a sweet, attractive girl and will be most missed by her host of friends. Mr. Pearce is a young man of sterling qualities, well worthy of the lovely bride of his choice. He holds a splendid position with the Big Four railroad, with headquarters in Indianapolis, Ind., where they will reside.

Mrs. Baker served an elegant fried chicken dinner at the Baker House this evening to members of the Holmes Club, as follows: Misses Edith Burke, Mary Margaret Fuller, Margaret J. Gingham, Anna Morrill, Emma Neudoerfer, Stella Rowe, Edna Streich, Lucile Swisshelm.

Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Early will leave tomorrow for a ten days' visit with relatives and friends in Adams and Brown counties.

Miss Grace Fry will leave June 20th for a visit at the home of Mrs. Barry Alger, in Atlanta, Ga.

The social given by the M. C. J. club of Saint Mary's hall, for the benefit of Saint Monica's church at New Boston, was a decided success, $203.50 being the amount taken in, with only $9.20 expenses, leaving a clear profit of $194.40. The M. C. J.'s are splendid workers and the social was a grand success, both socially and financially.

A surprise dinner was given at the Lincoln school in honor of Miss Ivy Shultz, one of the teachers, fiancée of Mr. Charles Lenhart. The dinner was served at one long table beautifully decorated in roses. The bride-to-be was presented with half a dozen cut glass sherbet cups and a handsome silver cream ladle. Miss Harriet Scarff and Miss Kate Comins were guests and presented the bride-to-be with dainty hand-painted china. Those present were Misses Margaret Quinn, Gladys Lantz, Julia Nickel, Lulu Jones, Esther Moritz, Grace Fry, Ivy Shultz, Mesdames Frances McColm, Samuel Justice, Ella Gable, Miss Comins and Miss Harriet Scarff. The wedding will take place this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meeks and baby will spend the week-end with Miss Hazel McKinley, in Lucasville.

Miss Forman is at home from East Cleveland school for her summer vacation to be spent with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Farmer.

Miss Lydia Daehler, of Columbus, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles Uhl, on Eighth street.

Mrs. J. L. Treuthart has returned from a visit in Chicago, where she attended the convention of the Woman's Suffrage Association. There were 10,000 women from all over the country attending the meeting.

A social meeting of the First Presbyterian Woman's Missionary Society will be held June 30th, at the home of Mrs. C. W. Rowe, who will be assisted by Misses Emma Dellert, Kate Reilly, Mary J. Davis, Mesdames J. M. Stark, Fannie Punteny, M. J. Smith and T. M. Lyon.

Miss Ethel Glutta, teacher in the First Grade school in Wheelersburg, will leave Monday to attend summer school at Oxford.

A party of young folks who had arranged an outing last evening as a farewell to Miss Anna Morris, were unable to go to the country on account of the rain and instead took their picnic supper to the home of Miss Dorothy Dowling, where an enjoyable evening was spent. There were sixteen young people present.

Mrs. F. W. Nagel, of Wheelersburg, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Albert Lechner, spent today with Mr. and Mrs. William Swaboy.

Mr. John D. Alexander, of Century, Fla., who came to see his daughter, Miss Myrtle Alexander, graduated from the Portsmouth high school, will leave Monday for his home, accompanied by his daughter.

The Bigelow Methodist Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will meet next Tuesday afternoon, at 2:30, at the home of Mrs. Mark W. Selby, who will be assisted by Mesdames Robert Meeks, Edward Strimatter, D. A. Berndt, J. W. Dillon, James W. Bannan, Jr., and Miss Maggie Lloyd.

Miss Irene Huston, of Grape Hill, is in receipt of an invitation from her niece, Miss Martha Yeager, daughter of Mrs. Bessie Irene Huston, Yeager, of Kansas City, Missouri. Miss Yeager is graduating from the Senior High school class of William Woods College, of Fulton, Missouri. Miss Yeager will probably visit Miss Huston at Grap Hill in the near future.

CONSTIPATED, EASILY TIRED, LIVER NOT ACTING?

A Wineglassful of Concentrated Tollo Water Will Start Your Liver and Relieve Your Constipation in Half An Hour.

When your liver gets clogged the bile is forced back into the stomach instead of flowing into the intestines and helping them to expel the waste. Nature tries to relieve the liver by absorbing the bile, then you feel drowsy and get tired easily; your skin gets yellow, your complexion muddy and your tongue coated.

Start your liver going by taking about a third of a tumbler full of Tollo Water in a glass of plain water before breakfast. In thirty minutes it will wash out the bile tubes of the liver and expel the waste from the system—not like calomel and strong drugs that irritate and weaken, but by giving the liver a bath just as you bathe your skin.

You can get a bottle of this water from any drug store for 15 cents, and should take it regularly for several mornings until your skin clears up and you get back your old time energy and good health. After that, an occasional glass before breakfast will keep your liver active and your stomach in perfect condition.

LOWER COURT SUSTAINED THrice

The court of appeals affirmed the decision of the lower court, Saturday, in the cases of Florence Davis, administratrix of the estate of the late Charles Davis against the Portsmouth Street Railroad and Light Company; The Hocking Mining Company against the Reinhart-Dennis Company; The Standard Supply Company against the Reinhart, Dennis Company, and L. Taylor, representing the Universal Motor Company against Reinhart, Dennis Company.

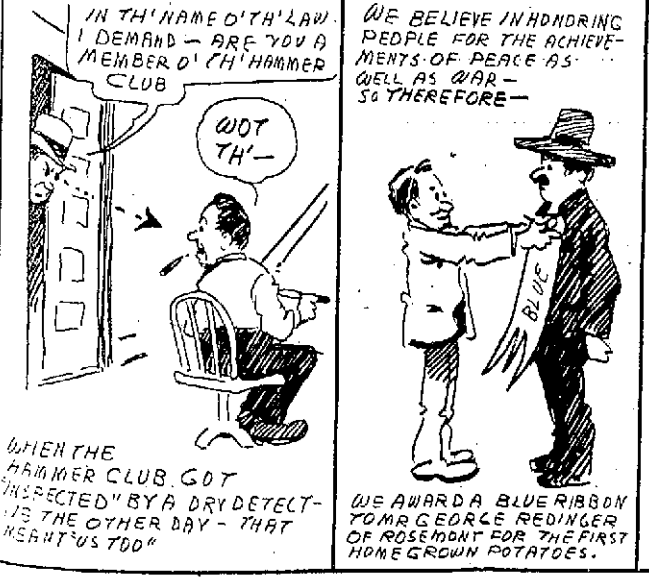

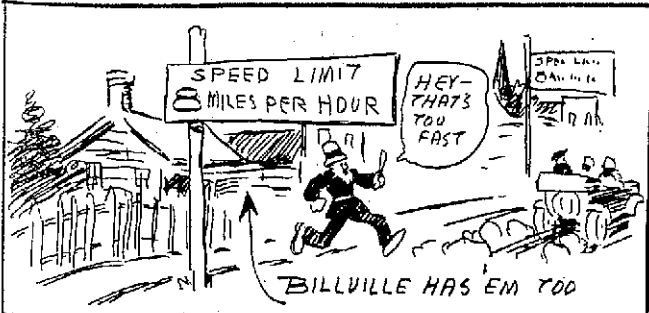

The case of Florence Davis against the Portsmouth Street Railroad and Light Company, suit for $5,000 damages, was heard before Judge Thomas several months ago and it was taken from the jury. The court of appeals found against the plaintiff. Blair and Kimble represented the plaintiff and Milner, Miller and Scarff the defense.

The case of the Hocking Mining Company, the Standard Supply Company and L. Taylor against Reinhart and Dennis Company, suits for money on checks, were sent to the court of appeals to affirm or annul the decision of the lower court which found in favor of the plaintiff. The decision was affirmed. Milner, Miller & Scarff represented the plaintiff and Bannan & Bannan and Will J. Meyer, the defense.

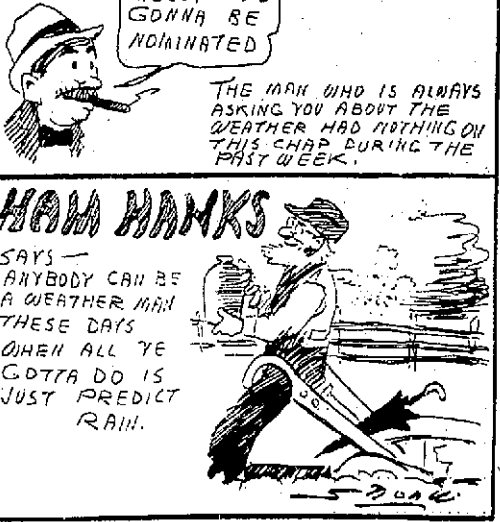

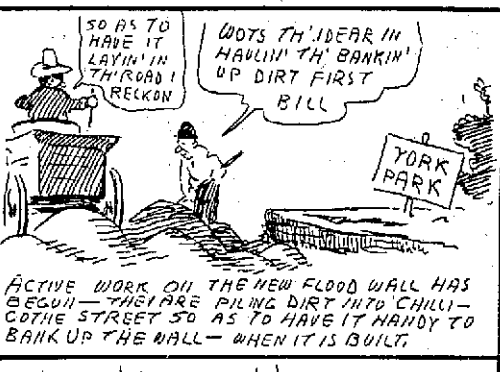

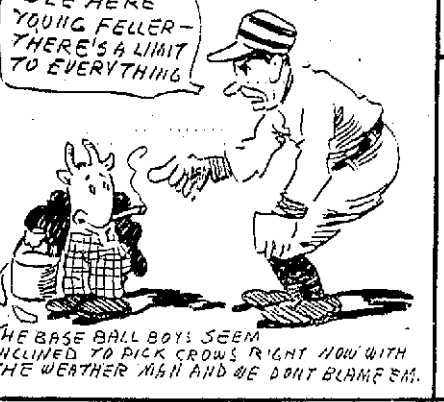

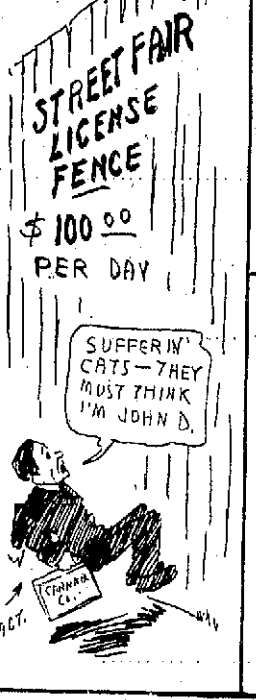

Judge John G. Milner received a message from the court of appeals Saturday which stated that the court had found in favor of the plaintiff in the case of William and Charles Vulgamore et al against David and Charlotte James, et al suit for partition of a $20,000 farm. This case went to the court of appeals and this body refused to consider it, claiming that it was not appealable. It was then carried to the supreme court which held that the appellate court had jurisdiction. Milner, Miller and Scarff represented the plaintiffs and Frank W. Moulton and Judge Davis, Cincinnati, the defense.

PORTSMOUTH DAY BY DAY

CERTAINLY WE BELIEVE IN HIGH LICENSE FOR STREET FAIRS - BUT THERE IS NO USE IN KILLING OFF THEIR ADVANCE MEN WITH HEART FAILURE.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, N. H. Office Phone 60.

Dear Dolly—You help so many every day, perhaps you will be able to enlighten me. Now, the other day I saw a bird, the like of which I never saw before or since. Now I wish you would name it if you please and can. In size it was smaller than a black bird, but a good deal bigger than a king bird. It had brown neck and head and black body and wings.

A BIRD LOVER.
Will some reader answer this question for "Bird Lover?"

Dear Dolly—Please tell me the composition of linotype metal. I mean the kind that is used in newspaper offices.

SAMMY.
It is an alloy of lead, or tin, with antimony, and sometimes a small quantity of copper or iron. The proportions of the metals used vary with the quality desired.

Dear Miss Wise—Recently a young man out of town visited at the home of a very good friend of mine. This young man wanted to be with me in the evening, but unavoidable circumstances prevented themselves that made it impossible for him to come the first part of the evening. At 10:00 o'clock his host called me up and asked if his guest could come up for a little while. I would like to know whether you think I should have let him come or refused him.

IN DOUBT.
There may be circumstances where the ten o'clock call might have been permissible, such as sudden departure from home and other things like that, but it seems to me that the man in question, had he any idea that the engagement might keep him, could have come for a few moments immediately after dinner, but as to the call at ten o'clock, I do hope that you told his host that it was not the correct hour for young men.

to visit young women. The engagement had virtually been broken and the tag-end of an evening as it were, would hardly suffice to mend matters. He should have called you up himself when he discovered that his evening would be filled, explained matters and arranged for a call the next day, perhaps. Young men of today, I have noticed, seem to be possessed of the belief that whatever they do is acceptable to the feminine contingent.

Dear Miss Wise—What is the meaning of "Ltd." following the name of a business firm?

WANT-TO-KNOW.
Limited. When used in connection with the name it means the liability of the shareholders is limited to the amount of stock they own.

Dear Miss Wise—Is it correct to say "Neither of the two were willing?"

MARY.
In saying "Neither of the two," you separate the pair in imagination, putting each in the singular number, in which case the verb must be in the singular to agree with the nominative. The blunder is surprisingly frequent in conversation, and occurs now and then in the printed work of those who should know better.

Dear Dolly—Please express your opinion of a young man who will "phone a girl and ask permission to call, and when granted he then says he will call in a few days and set the evening. Then he never calls or shows his face. He has done this two or three times before, but has always had such excellent excuses to offer that I forgive him. One of his very important business engagements proved to be a street fair show. I learned that long since, and I even overlooked him. The said young man wants to be considered a perfect gentleman, and as far as I can learn, is highly respected. We went together for six months two or three years ago. All this time his treatment of me never shattered my love for him. If he doesn't care anything for me, why does he want to torture me by lying and deceiving me as he does? I have never asked him back or allowed myself to appear anxious when he has asked to call. Is the trouble with me or him? I asked him a long time ago for an understanding, and he acted as if he thought I wasn't worth it. Yet he tells my friends that he considers me a mighty fine girl. If he asks to call again, what shall I say? Consider the fact that I love him with my whole heart and soul.

BLUE EYES.
It is human nature to take advantage of a person who is good natured. You have excused and

SOCIETY

Invitations for the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Johnson, well-known and highly respected residents of Portsmouth, were received by local friends and relatives Saturday. The anniversary is to be observed at the home of the happy couple Saturday afternoon, June 24.

The husband, who served throughout the great civil war, was married a year following the surrender of Lee at Appomattox, to Miss Kate Beatty, an aunt of Probate Judge Thomas C. Beatty.

For fifty years the couple have resided on their fine farm, Powellsville.

Miss Olive Willis, of Seventh street, employed at the Selo shoe factory, was taken very ill with an attack of appendicitis about ten days ago and had to be taken to her home. It will be some time before Miss Willis will be able to take up her work, as she is improving very slowly.

Mrs. J. F. Carr, Mrs. W. S. Walker and Mrs. W. G. Cheney have issued invitations to an "At Home" Friday, June 16, from three to five o'clock at the home of Mrs. Carr, 822 Second street.

Class Number 5 of Manly Sunday school held the regular monthly business and social session Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Aurilla Park 1419 Franklin avenue. Twenty-seven members were present. Arrangements were made for an outing to be held the last Saturday of this month. During the social hour piano music was rendered by Mrs. T. B. Park and Mrs. Emrich, after which delicious pineapple sherbet and cake were served.

Messrs. Isador Goodman and Ernest Kelley were the committee in charge of the last of this season's informal dances at the Elk parlors last evening, when Davison's splendid orchestra rendered the music for the dancing. There were fifteen couples who enjoyed the dancing until midnight. Miss Marie Bauer's guest, Miss Elizabeth Madison, of Xenia, Wis., was among the guests.

Mrs. William Wood will be hostess at the next meeting of the Thursday Afternoon Kensington Club next Thursday at her home on Hutchins street.

Mrs. Hattie Jenkins left this morning for Delaware to attend commencement exercises at the O. W. U., where her daughter, Miss Marjorie Jenkins, will be one of the sweet girl graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Selby, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl E. Selby and Miss Gladys Selby started this morning in Mr. G. D. Selby's car to motor to Delaware to see Mr. Ron Selby graduated from the O. W. U.

Mrs. W. F. Helier and three children, of Huntington, Pa., are here for a visit at the home of her father, Mr. A. Resinger, on Sixth street.

forgiven the boy until he feels that you will stand for anything. The next time he phones talk to him pleasantly for about three minutes and then say that you are very busy and ask him to excuse you. He will get a jolt when he realizes that you find something more important than talking to him. After he has been surprised he will want to come back to learn what made you act the way you did. The next time he calls talk as long as you usually do and if he wants to come to see you say you are very busy, but if he cares to come the following Tuesday, or any day you choose to make it, he may. Then a day or two before he is to come telephone him that it will be impossible for you to see him the night you had arranged to. Of course you will have to give some excuse. By this time he will probably be anxious to see you. Let him come, but don't appear overjoyed to have him. Indifference is the only thing that will win him back. Don't give him more than one night a week to come or he may lose interest again.

Glasses Help Headache

Many are the causes which bring on eyestrain and the consequent headaches. Eye headaches are those which no medicines seem to reach; those dull headaches which make life miserable, bring wrinkles to the brow and a dull look to the eyes. Nature never intended the eye to be over-worked, but if they have ever been over-worked and taxed beyond their normal strength, then science may show the remedy—Glasses. Come here and have your eye glasses scientifically made as there is much satisfaction in good glasses.

Our Special Toric Lenses always give you comfort.

TIMES SERVICE PATTERN

A VERY PLEASING AND ATTRACTIVE COMBINATION
Waist 1662. Skirt 1682.

This comprises Ladies' Waist Pattern 1662, and Ladies' Skirt Pattern 1682.

The skirt could be made of serge, gabardine, voile, novelty suiting, shepherd check, broadcloth, linen, drill or gingham. The waist is nice for silk, cepe, flannel, linen, lawn, batiste or madras. If desired, one material may be employed for waist and skirt, to produce the effect of a one-piece dress.

The waist pattern is cut in 6 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. It requires 3 yards of 36-inch material for a 36-inch size.

The skirt is cut in 6 sizes: 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32 inches waist measure. It requires 4 1/2 yards of 44-inch material for a 24-inch size which measures 3 1/3 yards at the foot.

This illustration calls for TWO separate patterns, which will be mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. FOR EACH pattern in silver or stamps.

CAUTION—Order adult pattern by number of pattern, giving bust measure for waist patterns, and waist measure for skirt patterns. For Misses and Children give number of pattern and age only.

"White Slave" Woman Turned Over To Husband

Mrs. Martha Davis, the Crane Creek, W. Va., young woman who it is alleged was transported to this state by Tyler Patterson, a coal miner of the same place, now held on a "white slave" charge, was released from custody and accompanied her husband, Wise Davis, back home on a midnight train Friday. Davis was not inclined to prosecute Patterson saying all he was interested in was in having his wife back. He was also inclined to overlook and forgive her escapade because she has been in poor health of late. It is likely that Mayor H. H. Kaps will also order the release of Patterson as it will be impossible to prosecute him on the charge without the Davis couple.

Joseph Lindsay Will Face A Serious Charge

Deputy Sheriff Fred Wilson, Indianapolis, Ind., arrived in Portsmouth Friday with requisition papers for Joseph Lindsay, alias Joseph Jackson, who is wanted in that city on a charge of abandoning a legitimate child. Lindsay was arrested here several days ago by Sheriff E. W. Smith. Deputy Wilson left with his prisoner Saturday morning.

ECHO OF TOW PATH

The thirty days given Contractor George White to complete the work on Niner Hill by the county commissioners expired several weeks ago, according to John Will, farmer who lives near there. Mr. Will was one of the party of residents of that section that filed a complaint against Contractor White last March. "There has not been much work done on the hill since the time expired, May 15," said Mr. Will, "and it looks like it would not be completed for some time to come. I was past there a week ago and Mr. White only had one team working."

A Discovery about your TEETH

Tonight, if you will closely examine your teeth after brushing them, you will make a surprising discovery. Though you have been cleaning your teeth regularly, you will find an accumulation of tartar on the enamel and bits of food deposit hiding between the crevices. Your dentures have not been REALLY CLEANING!

Loss of teeth is usually due to one of two conditions—Pyorrhea or Decay—both of which ordinarily develop only in the mouth where germ-laden tartar is present.

CLEAN your teeth—REALLY CLEAN them! Senreco, a dental specialist's formula will do it. Senreco embodies specially prepared, soluble granules unusually effective in cleaning away food deposits. Moreover, it is particularly destructive to the germ of Pyorrhea.

Go to your dealer today and get a tube of Senreco—keep your teeth REALLY CLEAN and protect your self against Pyorrhea and decay. Send 4c to Senreco 304 Walnut St., Cincinnati, Ohio, for trial package.

Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock, through the courtesy of the Business Men's Association, automobiles will be waiting at the high school building to convey all visitors around the "flag," a distance of 25 miles. At 12:30 o'clock an executive session will be held for members of the order in Ben Hur hall. From two till four o'clock the visiting ladies will be tendered a theatre party by Swastika Division at the Temple and Columbia theatres. At 8 p. m. a social session will be held in Ben Hur hall.

Want Sewer First

Although legislation was passed at the city council meeting Wednesday night officials will acquiesce in the wishes of abutting property owners not to pave the alley between Park avenue and Lincoln street, running south from Grant street, until after a sanitary sewer has first been constructed there. Twenty or more sewer connections are to be made in the alley.

SLAUGHTER ARRESTED

Sheriff E. W. Smith returned from Detroit, Mich., Friday night with Fred Slaughter in custody. He is wanted by Probate Judge Beatty on a charge of abandoning his child.

I. O. O. F. NOTICE.

All branches of the order are requested to meet at the Temple, Fifth and Court streets at 6:00 o'clock Sunday evening to attend the memorial services.

P. H. S. Alumni Met Last Night, Willard Gustin New President

The graduating class of 1916, was formally received into the Portsmouth High School Alumni Association Friday evening at the annual meeting held at the High School Auditorium. Sixty-seven alumni were on hand to welcome the sixty-six new members.

During the early hours of the evening, the broad corridor of the high school building was filled with "Grads". Old times were recalled and escapades were retold with considerable zest. New acquaintances were made and friendships renewed with classmates of years ago.

At eight o'clock, Mrs. D. A. Berndt, president of the organization, summoned the members to the auditorium for the annual business session. In a very able address, Mrs. Berndt welcomed the members of the new class into the organization and admonished them to ever be faithful to the customs. On behalf of the class, which was seated on the stage, Lorin Cunningham, newly elected president, expressed the appreciation for the spirited welcome and pledged the support of each classmate.

Two letters were received from members, each expressing a beautiful sentiment concerning the memories of Portsmouth High School days and wishing the very best of success to the new members. Those writing were: Lauro Glover Watkins, class of 1849, Los Angeles; and Mary Collins Hoffman, class 1871, Cleveland. They were read by W. B. Richardson, corresponding secretary.

A tribute to the departed members was read by Miss Margaret Klingman and was as follows:

ION-O-LEX

You Don't Have to Suffer From Eczema

Eczema, Erysipelas and other similar diseases are inflammatory in their nature.

Drugs will not cure them. You must stop the inflammation. That is what Ion-o-lex does—stops the inflammation.

Ion-o-lex is a truly wonderful scientific discovery—used for years by the most prominent physicians in England—used by the English Government in military hospitals—used and proven and sustained.

Contains no narcotics or opiates—perfectly harmless—does not interfere with other treatment.

Use it for any disease that is of an inflammatory nature.

Two forms—Liquid for internal use and ointment for external use. Don't be without it.

and pink" bunting, which was fastened every few feet with bunches of pink ramblers. Two large American flags formed a frontispiece near the head of the table.

The tables were handsomely decorated with graceful willow baskets filled with red and pink roses.

Under the able direction of Sherrard Johnson, toast master, several short talks were given. The program was witty and interesting.

Owing to sudden illness, Miss Marie Trigg was compelled to leave, so her toast, "Champion," was read by Miss Ruth Baker. It was bright and spangled with wit. Athletic records of the past four years were recalled.

Miss Margaret Quinn on "Almost Anything" was voted to be an authority. Her toast was original and witty.

The history of the "Night High School" was given by Miss Charlotte Barnett in a splendid manner.

"To close it is that when my sight is clear I think I almost see its gleaming strand;

I know the loved ones who have gone near enough sometimes, And so I cannot make it seem a day to dream

When from this dear world I shall journey out To that still dearer country of the dead,

And meet the loved ones so long dreamed about; It is but crossing with abated breath and grim white face, a little strip of sea,

To find the loved ones waiting on the shore, More beautiful, more loving than before."

D. Willard Gustin is New President

For the election of officers for the ensuing year a committee composed of Robert G. Bryan, Louise Bothwell and Arnold Schapiro was appointed to retire to an adjoining room and prepare a slate of officers. They later returned and reported the following officers who were unanimously elected:

D. Willard Gustin, president; Mrs. Pearl E. Selby, vice president; Miss Edna Streich, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Edgar B. Appel, recording secretary; Ralph Marling, treasurer; and executive committee, Lynn Wittenburg, Lillian Hancock, Louise Spencer, Anna Taylor, Ruth Crawford and William Quinn.

The meeting then adjourned to the basement where a pretentious feast was served by the ladies of the All Saints church. The members of the new class were seated at a long table fashioned in the shape of a T. On each side members of the association were seated. The running track about the gymnasium was draped in "Green and pink" bunting, which was fastened every few feet with bunches of pink ramblers. Two large American flags formed a frontispiece near the head of the table.

"To close it is that when my sight is clear I think I almost see its gleaming strand;

"The Last Word", was a thing much sought for but Miss Theresa Kennedy, although not having the last word, succeeded in explaining it distinctly to the bachelors. Her toast was short and interesting.

The last word was given by Sherrard Johnson, who read a short poem written and dedicated to the new class by Huston Riekey, of the Riekey and Johnson Company.

Following the banquet, Bode's Orchestra retired to the corridor and played several selections, while many danced the "light fantastic."

The retiring officers are: Mrs. D. A. Berndt, president; Harold M. Welch, first vice president; Lynn A. Wittenburg second vice president; Elmer Heisel, treasurer; W. B. Richardson, Corresponding secretary; Mrs. Edith Staten Appel, recording secretary; executive committee, Charlotte Barnett, Margaret M. Miller, Margaret M. Firminstone, Lillian P. Hancock, Bessie A. Mick.

Prof. F. E. Dowdy, principal of the Fullerton school the past year leaves Sunday for Lexington, Ky., where he will enter the State University. He will take a teacher's training course and will take up his work as principal again September 1st. The Fullerton school has four grades. Prof. Dowdy's wife and two children will remain in Fullerton while he is at school.

WHY "ANURIC"

IS AN INSURANCE AGAINST SUDDEN DEATH!

Sufferers from Backache, Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble

Before an Insurance Company will take a risk on your life the examining physician will test the urine and report whether you are a good risk. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog, you suffer from backache, sick-headache, dizzy spells, or the twinges and pains of lumbago, rheumatism and gout. The urine is often cloudy, full of sediment; channels often get sore and sleep is disturbed two or three times a night. This is the time you should consult some physician of wide experience—such as Dr. Pierce, of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Send him 10c for large trial package of his new discovery—"Anurie". Write him your symptoms and send a sample of urine for test. Experience has taught Dr. Pierce that "Anurie" is the most powerful agent in dissolving uric acid, as hot water melts sugar, besides being absolutely harmless and is endowed with other properties, for it preserves the kidneys in a healthy condition by thoroughly cleansing them. Being so many times more active than lithia, it clears the heart valves of any sandy substances which may clog them and checks the degeneration of the blood-vessels, as well as regulating blood pressure. "Anurie" is a regular insurance and life-saver for all big meat eaters and those who deposit lime-salts in their joints. Ask the druggist for "Anurie" put up by Dr. Pierce, in 50-cent packages.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets for the liver and bowels have been favorably known for nearly 50 years.

The urine is often cloudy, full of sediment; channels often get sore and sleep is disturbed two or three times a night. This is the time you should consult some physician of wide experience—such as Dr. Pierce, of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Send him 10c for large trial package of his new discovery—"Anurie". Write him your symptoms and send a sample of urine for test. Experience has taught Dr. Pierce that "Anurie" is the most powerful agent in dissolving uric acid, as hot water melts sugar, besides being absolutely harmless and is endowed with other properties, for it preserves the kidneys in a healthy condition by thoroughly cleansing them. Being so many times more active than lithia, it clears the heart valves of any sandy substances which may clog them and checks the degeneration of the blood-vessels, as well as regulating blood pressure. "Anurie" is a regular insurance and life-saver for all big meat eaters and those who deposit lime-salts in their joints. Ask the druggist for "Anurie" put up by Dr. Pierce, in 50-cent packages.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets for the liver and bowels have been favorably known for nearly 50 years.

Lesson XI.—Second Quarter, For June 11, 1916.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Gal. vi. and 1 Cor. ii.—Memory Verses, 1 Cor. ii. 9, 10. Golden Text, 1 Cor. ii. 10.—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.
As there is a prominent and all important line of truth running through both the lessons for today, we will consider both, and the heart of both seems to be the Spirit controlled life for those who are truly redeemed. We were recently studying a lesson concerning a long journey and a great council, all because of circumcision, and now we read that "In Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth anything nor uncircumcision, but a new creature" (Gal. vi. 15). The new essential thing is to be "in Christ Jesus," the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me, who hath redeemed me from all iniquity, the law, being made a curse for me; who gave Himself for me, that He might deliver me from all iniquity, and cleanse unto Himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works (Gal. ii. 20; iii. 13; i. 4). Then the words of Gal. vi. 14, should be ours and the daily life be a manifest standing fast in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, the "not I but Christ" life, the world crucified to us and we to the world (v. 14, 20). Because of the flesh, or old sinful nature, that remains in every believer there is a constant conflict, but the Holy Spirit who dwelleth in the believer will keep him from doing the things which the flesh would prompt him to do (v. 17). As believers we must earnestly desire to walk in the Spirit, and thus manifest the fruit of the Spirit, to the glory of God (v. 16, 18, 22, 23). There is a sowing and a reaping in every life, and it is either the old life (the new, the flesh or the Spirit, resulting in loss or gain (v. 8). We will surely reap what we sow, and the harvest may be in seed for good or evil (Hosea vi. 7; 4, 12, 13; Eccl. xlii. 8). May our aim always be to gather fruit into life eternal and never faint or grow weary, but go on in patient continuance, for the reaping time will surely come (Gal. vi. 9; John iv. 30-38; Rom. ii. 7; 1 Cor. xv. 63).
Turning to the lesson in Corinthians, the truths are just the same. Believers are by the grace of God sanctified in Christ Jesus, called saints, and in Christ Jesus have wisdom, righteousness, sanctification and redemption, so that there is no one and no thing worth knowing compared with Jesus Christ and Him crucified (1 Cor. i. 2-4, 20-31; ii. 2). We have here, as in the other lesson in Galatians, the flesh and the Spirit, or the wisdom of this world and Jesus Christ, who is the power of God, and the wisdom of God, and they are always contrary, the one to the other (1 Cor. i. 21, 24). Paul knew much of the wisdom of this world, but brought up at the feet of Gamaliel, and he set aside all the wisdom of men that he might know the wisdom of God (1 Cor. i. 4, 8).
We remember that Moses, being learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, had to keep sleep for forty years in the school of God that he might know the wisdom of God. The wisdom of Egypt could not interpret the dreams of Pharaoh, but the wisdom of God in Joseph easily could and did. All the wisdom of Babylon could not tell the king what he had dreamed, nor the meaning of his dreams, nor interpret the handwriting on the wall, but the wisdom of God in Daniel easily did all. The wisdom of this world never has been able to and cannot now interpret the things of God, for the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God (1 Cor. ii. 14-16). Human scholarship, however great, unless under the control of the Spirit of God, is wholly unable to understand the things of God.
The greatest scholar that earth can produce, unless born again, is simply a natural man, and to him the things of God are only foolishness (1 Cor. ii. 14), but the most unlearned and ignorant in the things of this world's wisdom may by the Spirit of God know the things of God. The wise men in the time of our Lord spoke of Him as having never learned, and they called Peter and John unlearned and ignorant men (John vi. 15; Acts iv. 13), as those who may be despised by the world's scholarship should find comfort in this. While we wait for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ we are called into fellowship with Him (1 Cor. i. 7, 9), and this is part of the fellowship—to be counted unworthy and ignorant because we take the Bible literally, believe it all, and that God means what He says, and if the plain, obvious sense makes good sense we need seek no other sense.
We have recalled the Spirit of God that we may know the things that are freely given us of God, which neither eye nor ear nor heart of man hath seen or heard or imagined, and thus be able in the power of an endless life to endure patiently till He come (1 Cor. ii. 9-12). Compare Isa. lvi. 4, from which part of this is quoted and note the revised version. In connection with the sowing and reaping of Gal. vi. note the building of 1 Cor. iii. 11-15, and the possibility of great loss even though the soul may be saved. Salvation can only be obtained as a free gift from

Anniversary Celebrated

The Sewing Circle and the Sen Club were charmingly entertained at luncheon yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Gooden on Waller street in honor of their 20th wedding anniversary. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns and cut flowers. The color scheme was pink and white and was carried throughout the menu. Mrs. Pauline White received the guests.
Mrs. Lucy Whitfield invited them into the lovely dining room where covers were laid for ten on an exquisitely appointed table in the center of which was a French basket of beautiful pink and white sweet peas. Mrs. Daisy White and Miss Mabel Jones served the fruit nectar. The favors were sweet peas. The guests presented Mrs. Gooden with a handsome linen table cloth and a dozen napkins.

God, apart from any works or effort on our part. But being saved there are good works prepared for us to walk in (Eph. ii. 8-10). There are no degrees in salvation, but much difference in service and rewards.

Social Session Enjoyed By New Class Last Night

Members of "Class 57" of the Second Presbyterian church enjoyed a splendid social meeting in the basement of the church Friday evening, when the members of the class held a reception in honor of their new teacher, Prof. Clark Fullerton, principal of the high school, who was elected teacher when the John E. Williams Bible class and the Men's Fellowship class merged several weeks ago.

The entertaining program started at 7:30 o'clock. John E. Williams was the first speaker, his subject being "Why a Man Should Belong to a Bible Class." "What the Superintendent Should Do for the Sunday School" was the subject of a talk made by W. W. Gates, superintendent of the Second Presbyterian Sunday school. Rev. George P. Horst, pastor of the church, was the next speaker and he gave a very good talk on "The Relation of the Pastor to the Sunday School." Attorney B. E. Kimble, formerly teacher of the Fellowship Class, made a splendid talk on "What Makes the Ideal Teacher."

"The History of John E. Williams' Bible Class was the subject assigned to C. H. Chamberlain, but he was unable to be present. F. E. Power gave a talk on "The History of the Fellowship Class." Prof. Clark Fullerton then made a splendid response.

Refreshments of ice cream, strawberries, cake and coffee were served, this part of the entertainment being in charge of the wives and daughters of the members of the class. The committee on arrangements, consisting of F. B. Winter, Edward T. Welch and J. Anderson, received many compliments on the program prepared.

INDIANA MAN HAD A DELICATE LIVER

Made Friends Think He Would Not Live, But Black-Draught Liver

Medicine Brought Him Safely Through.

Logansport, Ind.—Mr. Anthony Wilson, of this town, says: "I was born with a delicate liver, which caused a disordered stomach, and my growth was affected by a case of malarial fever. I spent considerable money for treatments, but without any permanent relief.
I commenced using Thedford's Black-Draught at the age of 10, and continued until I was grown, and it cured me, and I consider it a rapid cure in a case like mine.
The people around here said I would never live to be a man, but Thedford's Black-Draught fooled them all.

Will Meet Monday

Monday evening, June 12, the directors of the Business Men's Association will hold their regular monthly meeting. Several important measures are to be discussed.

Maternity! The Word of Words

It is written into life's expectations that motherhood is the one sublime accomplishment. And there is a word that tells how simple, how apparently trivial it may seem, if it is a blessing. And such a blessing is a word called "Mother's Friend." You apply it over the stomach muscles. It is gently rubbed on the surface, and makes the muscles pliant; this relieves the strain on ligaments, natural expansion takes place without undue effort upon the mother. And as the time approaches, the mind has room to breathe a period of repose, of gentle expectancy, and this has an unquestioned influence upon the future child. That this is true is evidenced by the fact that three generations of women have used and recommended "Mother's Friend." Ask your nearest druggist for a bottle of this splendid remedy. He will get it for you. And then write to Dr. J. C. Crivley, 467 Lamar Road, Atlanta, Ga., for a most interesting book of information to prospective mothers. It is a book you will enjoy today. It is a book you will enjoy

AFTER HEARING NOMINATING SPEECHES REPUBLICANS OPENED BALLOTING AT 7:45 LAST NIGHT

Coliseum, Chicago, June 10.—Nominating speeches continued throughout Friday afternoon in the Republican convention and were concluded late in the afternoon.

A demonstration was started after Senator Fall's speech nominating Co. Roosevelt.

At 5:50 p. m. the crowd responding to the chairman's appeal, quieted down, the demonstration having lasted 41 minutes, the roll call went on and North Dakota yielded to Wisconsin and M. B. Olbrich nominated Senator LaFollette.

The burden of Olbrich's speech was against preparedness and the galleries were disposed to jeer, but they were rapped to order. The delegates rubbed the galleries by calling to Olbrich:

"Go on, you're all right."

The disturbers took the hint and quieted down.

Olbrich finished his nominating speech of Senator LaFollette at 6:23 o'clock. There was no demonstration.

The roll call went on and for Pennsylvania, Emerson Collins presented the name of Governor Brumbaugh.

"Second" Addresses Are Limited

The roll call went on to the end without other candidates being offered. Senator Wadsworth, of New York then moved his special rule to allow five minutes for any two seconding speeches for the same candidates and two minutes each for any others. Amid shouts of "Good, good" the rule was adopted.

Chairman Harding then ruled the seconding speeches in order. Delegate Weinberg of Frederick, Md., made a speech seconding Governor Whitman's nomination of Justice Hughes.

Delegate C. W. Fulton of Oregon, also seconded the nomination of the Justice. Judge Bynum of North Carolina, and E. W. Britt of California, made seconding speeches for Elihu Root.

E. N. Meeken, of Elizabeth City, N. C., made a seconding speech for former Senator Burton. Frank R. Stewart of Arizona, also seconded the Burton nomination.

Then former Representative Thomas Settle, of North Carolina, seconded the nomination of Senator Weeks of Massachusetts.

Former Representative McGuire of Oklahoma, also seconded the nomination of Senator Weeks, and so did W. O. Emery, a negro of Georgia.

Edward P. Morrow of Kentucky, seconded the nomination of Fairbanks.

Ernest Lundeen of Minnesota, seconded the nomination of Senator Cummins.

Former Senator S. E. Wilson of South Dakota, also seconded the Cummins nomination.

Delegates Did Not Want to Eat

The crowd was getting restless and a delegate demanded to know whether there would be a recess for dinner.

"No," roared the delegates. The chairman announced his intention of recognizing ten seconding speakers for Roosevelt and introduced Ex-Senator Marion Butler of North Carolina.

A. M. Stevenson, "Big Steve" of Colorado, was next recognized for the Roosevelt second.

There was a wild demonstration for the Colonel as "Big Steve" closed and Chairman Harding announced that he proposed to recognize nine others to second the Roosevelt nomination.

Former Senator Marion Butler, North Carolina was the first of the nine.

Robert M. Pollock of North Dakota, seconded the nomination of LaFollette, and W. S. Vare of Pennsylvania, seconded the nomination of Brumbaugh. Thus the Roosevelt speeches were interrupted.

Wm. Potter of Pennsylvania, seconded the nomination of LaFollette, and W. S. Vare of Pennsylvania, seconded the nomination of Brumbaugh. Thus the Roosevelt speeches were interrupted.

Coliseum, Chicago, June 10.—Nominating speeches continued throughout Friday afternoon in the Republican convention and were concluded late in the afternoon.

A demonstration was started after Senator Fall's speech nominating Co. Roosevelt.

At 5:50 p. m. the crowd responding to the chairman's appeal, quieted down, the demonstration having lasted 41 minutes, the roll call went on and North Dakota yielded to Wisconsin and M. B. Olbrich nominated Senator LaFollette.

The burden of Olbrich's speech was against preparedness and the galleries were disposed to jeer, but they were rapped to order. The delegates rubbed the galleries by calling to Olbrich:

"Go on, you're all right."

The disturbers took the hint and quieted down.

Olbrich finished his nominating speech of Senator LaFollette at 6:23 o'clock. There was no demonstration.

The roll call went on and for Pennsylvania, Emerson Collins presented the name of Governor Brumbaugh.

"Second" Addresses Are Limited

The roll call went on to the end without other candidates being offered. Senator Wadsworth, of New York then moved his special rule to allow five minutes for any two seconding speeches for the same candidates and two minutes each for any others. Amid shouts of "Good, good" the rule was adopted.

Chairman Harding then ruled the seconding speeches in order. Delegate Weinberg of Frederick, Md., made a speech seconding Governor Whitman's nomination of Justice Hughes.

Delegate C. W. Fulton of Oregon, also seconded the nomination of the Justice. Judge Bynum of North Carolina, and E. W. Britt of California, made seconding speeches for Elihu Root.

Roosevelt Is Silent Believes He Will Accept

Oyster Bay, June 10.—When informed that the Republicans had nominated Justice Hughes and the Progressives had nominated him, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt refused to make any comment. He remained secluded in his Sagamore Hill home.

It is confidently believed here, however, that Colonel Roosevelt will accept the nomination. His friends looked for a statement from him to this effect later in the day.

Colonel Roosevelt's message to the Progressives, in which he suggested Senator Henry Cabot Lodge as a compromise candidate is thought by his friends to preclude his approval of Justice Hughes' nomination, especially as the latter failed to make known his position on the question of the so-called hyphenated vote in advance of the action of the Republican convention.

Oyster Bay is awaiting with interest word from Justice Hughes, but it is not believed that any statement coming from the Justice will change Colonel Roosevelt's attitude at this time.

Chairman Harding then ruled the seconding speeches in order. Delegate Weinberg of Frederick, Md., made a speech seconding Governor Whitman's nomination of Justice Hughes.

Delegate C. W. Fulton of Oregon, also seconded the nomination of the Justice. Judge Bynum of North Carolina, and E. W. Britt of California, made seconding speeches for Elihu Root.

WHOSE PICTURE IS IT?

A photograph was found in front of Prescott's commission house a day or two ago which is creating considerable interest. It is an old-fashioned small card photograph, or "carte de visite," as they were known to the photographic trade, and is that of a handsome youngish middle-aged man, with a strong face, high forehead, full brown beard and mustache, hair thin and tinged with white, and beard and mustache slightly streaked with white.

He wears an old-fashioned watch "chain" with large links made of hair. The picture was taken by J. N. Lutz, and as Mr. Lutz has been dead nearly thirty years the picture is very much to the back number. Mr. Prescott thinks it is the late Charles E. Pray, a well-known shoemaker. James M.

Ellis thinks it is the late Dan R. Spry, and Frank Kehoe thinks it is Robert N. Spry. The picture was shown to Mr. Spry's sisters, but they failed to identify it. Henry Cline is sure it is Penrose Carr. John D. Jones thinks it is the late Sheriff John W. Lewis, and that is probably as good a guess as any. A great many pick out W. K. Thompson as the man, but others fail to recall a be-whiskered "Ken" Thompson. Andrew Emmett guesses Dr. William J. McDowell. Willis Calhoun thinks it is Willis Bagby in his young days. J. I. Mercer thinks it is a Mr. McCall, who lived above Buena Vista. Whoever lost the picture would doubtless like to have it, and if he or she, will call at Henry Faivre's shoe shop he can have it on proper identification.

The Metropolitan Shows, which showed in York Park this week, will leave Sunday over the N. & W. for Chillicothe. Continuous rain here this week cut heavily into the receipts of the company.

BIRTHS

A daughter was born Saturday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jones of 1208 Franklin avenue. Mr. Jones is the well known druggist at Eleventh and Hutchins streets.

Peter George, the jovial janitor of the First Presbyterian church, hailed the Times' West End reporter Saturday to politely tell him that he has been asleep on his job. Peter declared that he had completed a fine new two story home, also a porch and had a new arrival, all within a week's time and none of the important events had received as much as a bare mention in this metropolitan sheet. The new member of the George household is a fine big boy and veritable "chip off the old block."

Mr. and Mrs. Griffin Warden are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby son at their home on Third street, Saturday. Mr. Warden is a carpenter.

The strongest claim any competitor can make is that his flour is just as good as WHITE SATIN. St. Mon-Wed-Thu-St

The Republican convention was again late in assembling. At 11 o'clock the convention hall was filling slowly and many gallery seats were vacant.

John McGrath, Theodore Roosevelt's secretary, appeared on the platform. Chairman Harding was asked what it meant.

"We are going to get together," he said.

The Ohio delegation has appointed a committee of their number to canvass the situation with the view that the 48 votes of the state be cast as a unit.

It is definitely stated Fairbanks has released all his supporters except the Indiana delegation which will cast one more ballot for him.

Ex-Secretary Stinson stated the New York delegation with possibly a few exceptions will go to Hughes, and to Fairbanks for vice president.

Senator Penrose says the sentiment seems to be all for Fairbanks for second place and he knows he will accept.

Ohio delegation with one possible exception will vote for Hughes.

The chair recognized Senator Smoot to present the peace conference report.

He announced the Progressive members of the peace committee had presented to the Progressive convention for consideration the name of Justice Hughes. Cheers followed.

Mr. Smoot then read Colonel Roosevelt's letter to the Progressive convention, explaining that it had been brought to the Coliseum by Mr. McGrath, since the peace conference met.

Gov. Willis, of Ohio, withdraws Burton.

Congressman Rodenburg of Illinois, was recognized and withdrew Sherman.

The roll for the third ballot was ordered.

As state after stated voted solidly for Hughes, and others changed to him, it became evident the nomination would be practically unanimous.

Stevenson, of Colorado, moved nomination of Hughes by acclamation. Delegate Stevenson of Colorado speaking for the delegates in the convention who have been supporting Col. Roosevelt, withdrew his name from further consideration.

Teacher Goes to Cleveland

Prof. H. R. Schilling, manual training instructor in the Portsmouth high school, left Saturday for Cleveland, O., where he will spend a few days with home folks. Prof. Schilling will attend summer school at either Bradley College, Peoria, Ill., or the University of Chicago at Chicago. Prof. Schilling will return next term.

Big Tax Collection

During the past week County Treasurer Maurice J. Caldwell collected $22,322.30 taxes. This set a new record for an average collection.

HAMMER AND PAINT

Henry Faivre is remodeling his property at Gay and Third streets, recently vacated by City Treasurer D. R. Edwards.

When the demonstration following Captain Parker's address had been silenced the platform was formally adopted without a roll call.

Chairman Robins said the order was to proceed with nominations for president and vice president. Chairman O'Connell of New York, was recognized for motion to suspend the rules and proceed with nominations. Hamilton Fish, Jr., challenged O'Connell's request to speak for a majority of the delegation. A poll was ordered.

The New York delegation upon being polled, rejected the motion to suspend the rules and make nominations the order of business, the vote being 55 to 32.

Answering demands for an immediate nomination of Colonel Roosevelt, Chair Robins said the convention "would not proceed to adopt the platform or make nominations" without giving the conference committee a reasonable time to report.

Miss Hazel Holmes has taken a position as night telephone clerk at the Western Union telegraph office, succeeding Ludlow Lockwood who has gone to Columbus with relatives to reside. Miss Olga Thoroman of the same office, left Saturday on a vacation visit to home folks in West Union.

"Dick" Back From Trip

E. W. Richards, who travels for the Wall Furniture company arrived home Saturday from a two weeks' trip through central Ohio. Bringing Home Fine Auto.

Harry Howe was on his way home from Columbus Saturday afternoon with Alan N. Jordan's new Twin Six Packard touring car.

SOCIETY

Mrs. Pauline Esselhart returned to her home in Cincinnati Saturday after a week's visit at the home of her son, Paul Esselhart, on New Fifth street.

Miss Olga Kitchen, of the R. & O. freight office, has gone to Oak Hill for a week and visit with home folks.

Answering demands for an immediate nomination of Colonel Roosevelt, Chair Robins said the convention "would not proceed to adopt the platform or make nominations" without giving the conference committee a reasonable time to report.

IN SCREENLAND

MISS Mary Fuller is with the Universal company. Her rise to fame was rather spectacular. Four years ago she was practically unknown, though she had done good work in a small way on the stage. Then she became interested in pictures and worked for a while as "extra" with the Vitagraph company. She was there but a few short weeks, however, when the Edison company accepted her services—and, presto—before she knew it she was a star. She became known through her successful portrayals of "What Happened to Mary" and "Dolly of the Dailies." At the present writing she has just completed "Madam Christ," an eccentric drama with eccentric scenes and settings.

Miss Fuller is five feet four inches tall, has brown hair and red-brown eyes, and weighs one hundred and twenty-two pounds. She is an indefatigable worker. When not working she is prone to steal away all by herself to attend a movie. She says, "I love to put on a heavy veil and creep into the back seat of a motion picture theatre where one of my pictures is being shown and hear what people are saying about me." Miss Fuller has a typewriter in her room and writes a good many of her own scenarios. Altogether a charming and interesting little personage—and unmarried.

strong five part Ince production featuring Frank Mills and Miss Edith Reeves. The Keystone comedy is "The Village Vampire." Nuts.

By all means don't overlook Friday and begin to make your arrangements now to see "The Birth of a Man," starring Henry Walthall in the strongest picture he has made since his world wide success in "The Birth of a Nation."

The "movies" of the formal opening of the Ohio Valley traction line between Portsmouth and Wheelersburg, which was celebrated by 250 members of the local Business Men's Association May 22, have been completed and are splendid. Virgil Fowler finished the pictures Wednesday and privately exhibited them at his camera store on Chillicothe street. The pictures of the May Day Pageant which was given under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. at the Children's Home are also very good. These pictures will be shown at the Columbia theatre in the near future.

JOFFRE IN LONDON
 London, June 10.—General Joffre, the French commander in chief, is in London. He attended an important conference at the foreign office yesterday with Paul Cambon, the French Ambassador, Sir Edward Gray, the foreign secretary and the members of the war council.

According to advices received by the Selig Polyscope company, the production of Rex Beach's novel, "The Never-Do-Well," has become unusually popular in the British Isles and theatres where the ten-reel drama is presented are always crowded.

A PRETTY SCENE IN THE NEW TRIANGLE-FINE ARTS PLAY, "MARTHA'S VINDICATION."

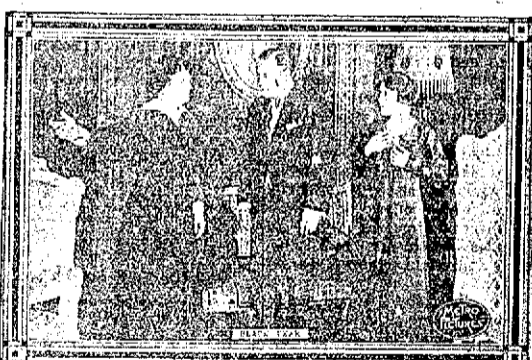

Don't Miss This At The Columbia Monday.

Seldom has the Triangle produced a better "dressed" play than "Martha's Vindication," its newest Fine Arts release, featuring Norma Taluadage, Seena Owen and Tully Marshall. Miss Tal-

Wallace Reid and Cleo Ridgely in the Paramount Feature "The Love Mask" At Lyric Monday.

Having recently established herself as one of the most brilliant actresses of the screen, by her wonderful performance as the wife in the Jesse L. Lasky production, "The Golden Chance," beautiful Cleo Ridgely will next be seen as a bold, bad bandit at the Lyric on Monday in the Jesse L. Lasky production of "The Love Mask," which was written especially for her by Cecil B. DeMille, director general of the Lasky company, and Jeanie MacPherson, author of "The Golden Chance." It is a Paramount picture.

Grace Elliston in "The Black Fear," Columbia Tuesday.

The next production on the produced by Rolfe Photoplays, Metro program is "Black Fear," Inc., which will be seen here at a remarkable five part feature the Columbia on Tuesday.

An Ideal Role For Marguerite Clark, Stars In Famous Players Adaptation of Delightful "Molly Make-Believe."

Everyone who has seen Mar. Famous Players-Paramount picture Marguerite Clark in "Wildflower," turns in which she has played the "Nice and Men," and the other mischievous little girl, will hail with delight the news that she is to star in an elaborate film adaptation of the popular story, "Molly Make-Believe," which is to be the feature at the Lyric on Tuesday next week.

Only those who have witnessed the diminutive star's portrayal of one of these irresistible little scamps can possibly realize the infinite charm with which Miss Clark invests her interpretations.

"A TEMPERANCE TOWN"

"A Temperance Town," one of the late Charles Hoyt's best comedies, with Otis Harlan in the role of Mink Jones, will be released by the Selig company through General Film Service Monday. The story deals with the rivalry between the "wet" and "dry" forces in a small town.

Marie Doro, the Lasky-Paramount star, will shortly start rehearsals under the direction of William C. DeMille in a drama written especially for her and entitled "The Storm."

Marguerite Clark appears as a bride in "Silks and Satins." No, she is not married.

The initial Edna Goodrich photoplay to be released by the Oliver Monogram Photoplay company has been finished at the West Coast studios. "The Making of Madalena" is the title of the next Monogram offering, to be released Monday.

The International Film Products company has arranged with Ethel Redmond, Ohio's best known exponent of ball room and stage dancing, to make a series of films for teaching dancing by motion pictures.

"THE DEVIL'S PRAYER BOOK"

Sensational five part picture with Alma Hanlon and Arthur Hoops

At The Argos

"The Best Man's Bride" is a two part Gold Seal comedy. The girl takes the best man to her grandmother's unoccupied home and takes care of him, he having been drugged. In so doing she compromises herself and the result is she marries the best man instead of the one she intended. The situations are handled very cleverly and the offering holds the interest closely. Herbert Rawlinson and Francis Billington play the leading parts attractively. "His Neighbor's Wife" is a comedy featuring Ray Gallagher, Billie Rhodes and Harry Rottenberry. The young bachelor pretends to be married to get a salary raise and has to borrow his neighbor's wife and chicken dinner when his employer calls. Trouble follows.

"Love Laughs At Dyspepsia" is an Imp comedy featuring Jane Bernadine and Victor Petel. She is love sick and he has indigestion. Cupid takes part in the love scenes.

At The Strand

"The Leopard's Mask" is the title of the first episode of "Peg o' the Ring" that new circus serial in fifteen chapters. The stars are Grace Cunard and Francis Ford who played in "The Broken Cord."

Grace Cunard appears in the double role of mother and daughter. The mother is clawed by an angry leopard prior to the daughter's death. The theme of prenatal influence is effectively employed, the girl being subject to mad impulses at certain intervals, when she scratches and tears everything in sight. Francis Ford, a half brother to the girl, by the same father, falls in love with her without knowing her history.

"Lathered Truth" is a two part Victor comedy featuring Rosemary Theby as a manicure girl with social aspirations and Harry C. Meyers as a moving picture director. "The Brink" is a strong drama.

At The Temple

Today's feature is a five part Gold Rooster entitled "The Precious Packet," featuring Ralph Kellard and Lois Meridith. There are some especially fine racing scenes in the opening reel, and plenty of action throughout the play. The story tells of the adventures of a young Englishman who is sent to America on a mission unknown to himself. After being kidnapped by the woman to whom the message of the packet refers he falls in love with her and discovers on opening the packet at the appointed date that it contains an order for his marriage to her. She is the queen elixir of a French kingdom to be established in Canada.

Totals: Males 3722, females 3641; total 7385.

Enumeration of 1915, 7266.

Gain over 1915, 119.

Drift of Population

The curious features developed by this canvass are: First, the suburbs outside of the present corporation lines are growing rapidly at the expense of the city.

Paved roads, trolley car service, bicycles and automobiles are making it possible for not only business men but factory employees to live at greater distances, enjoy suburban homes and find breathing space and elbow room. Suburban colonies are rapidly springing up all around the Walls from Nantua on the West Side, up the Chillicothe pike as far as Rosemount, up Brewery Hollow and far east beyond New Boston and Sciotoville to Wheelersburg. It is doubtful that any appreciable increase in population will ever hereafter be shown within the present corporate limits of the city.

Increases are shown on the extreme West End, west of Washington street, in the extreme southeast about Dexter avenue, along the North End, north of Seventeenth and Grant streets and in the extreme east quarter, east of Lawson's Run, while there is shown an almost unbroken decrease throughout the entire middle belt from Washington street east to Campbell avenue. This is caused by the growth of the business district, tenements being converted into business houses and auto repair shops.

Investigation of the cause of the loss in Precinct G, Fourth Ward, develops the curious fact that, this being a railroader's colony, they are converting the alley houses, long an architectural feature of this landscape, into automobile garages.

The classes between the ages of 6 and 21 are usually estimated to be one-fourth of the entire population, which would indicate a population of 29,540. The directory publishers of last year estimated the urban population at 27,872 and both urban and suburban at 31,775. The above estimates are reasonable and conservative.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH W. MITCHELL.

REO

An Equage of Surpassing Beauty, Highest Utility and Efficiency

IN THIS NEW REO SIX you will find that rare combination of those qualities you most desire in your automobile.

WE REO FOLK ARE PROUD of the results we have achieved in this latest Reo model. We are proud that so many other designers have very evidently taken this body design as their model for next season.

AND WE ARE DELIGHTED at the way in which owners speak of it to their friends—evidence that its mechanical excellence is fully equal to the promise made by its outward appearance.

FOR THAT ISN'T THE BULK you know—alas, too few new models live up to their appearance.

THIS CAR IS REO BUILT "from radiator cap to tail light" as we say in the trade vernacular—Reo quality of materials and workmanship, throughout.

REO PRESTIGE—REO POPULARITY—Reo demand, is the result of long years of working from and to a definite and a well known goal. Reo cars are standardized to a higher degree, and have been for a long time than any other, save one.

THINK BACK and you will endorse that statement though on the impulse you are disposed to question its accuracy.

"IT'S THE HANDSOMEST THING on wheels!" exclaimed one enthusiast.

BUT IT ISN'T BEAUTY ALONE—though such is the grace and elegance of this car it is considered among motorists a distinction to be seen in a Reo Six.

NOE PERFORMANCE ALONE—though that too is such it complements the mechanical discrimination of the man who selects a Reo for his car.

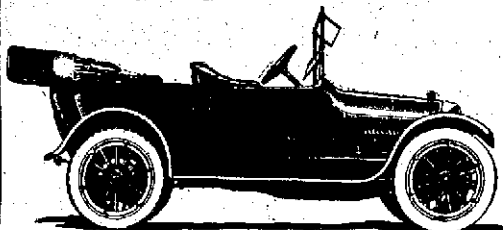

IT'S THE COMBINATION—so long and ardently sought, so seldom achieved—of beauty of line and of finish, coupled with a degree of engineering excellence that approximates perfection; harmonious riding qualities coupled with economy of upkeep—these are the qualities that are distinctly Reo.

DO YOU WONDER, when you study this car from the standpoint of the artist and of the engineer, and then consider the price—do you wonder that motorists say "Reo is the 'Gold Standard' of Automobile Values?"

EMPLOYS A NOVEL IDEA

The first druggist to take advantage of the enormous popularity of automobiles is in Little Rock, Arkansas. This gentleman in equipping his soda fountain to represent the most popular light car now on the market.

Incidentally, he has chosen as equipment the most high class anti skid tire now made, the United States "Nobby" tread.

Looking directly at the fountain, one sees the headlights, the steering wheel and the tires. It is a novel idea, and from all reports is bringing trade rapidly.

Four Reos Shipped

David Stahler, agent for the popular Reo, spent the past week at Lansing, Mich., and Flint, Mich., where he visited the huge plants of the Reo Automobile company and the Dort Motor Car company. While there Mr. Stahler made arrangements to have cars delivered. He had four Reo touring cars shipped.

STUDEBAKER WON EVENT

First honors among stock cars went to a Studebaker Six in a hill climbing event recently held at Spokane, Wash. The Studebaker negotiated a 2139 foot course, showing an average rise of 7.55 percent, in 42 seconds.

Two Reos Delivered

The following Reo touring cars were delivered to owners by Agent David Stahler, Saturday: Adam Burkel, Reo Four; and Grant Hannab, a Reo Six.

Studebaker

At $1085 this Studebaker SERIES 17 SIX offers a degree of character and distinction in motor car design that is equalled only by cars costing from $250 to $400 more.

With full 50 horse power that soars the steepest hills—riding comfort unexcelled and appearance that impels pride in ownership—the Studebaker SIX furnishes indisputable evidence of the fact that such value in a motor car is not necessarily governed by price.

On the road as on the busy thoroughfares of every city throughout the country, this Studebaker is proving its unchallenged reputation for comfort, stamina and refinement.

Detroit's Opinion is Authoritative—

In Detroit, the city that produces three-fourths of the country's cars—where people know cars from the technical and manufacturing sides better than they do in any other city on earth—more Studebakers were registered, according to official figures, in the year of 1915 than any other cars selling at more than $500.

California's Opinion is Authoritative—

In California, the State of wonderful roads and weather—the State where people have more miles of good roads to drive over and more opportunity to use their cars than in any other State in the Union—the official figures for the year of 1915 showed 15,718 Studebakers registered—2,895 MORE than any other car listing at more than $500.

Studebaker offers a complete line of high-grade cars from $850 to $2,500. Write for handsomely illustrated catalog picturing the cars and giving complete list of prices. All prices F. O. B. Detroit.

16 Studebaker Machines Chosen For Maneuvers

The mobilization of motor cars as aids in the quick mobilization of troops have just been demonstrated in army maneuvers held at Utica, N. Y. As a result, an automobile battalion of twenty cars will be formed to serve as an adjunct to the U. S. troops stationed at that city.

Sixteen Studebaker cars were chosen for the maneuvers, which included dashes of 22 miles up and down the Mohawk valley.

Two large manufacturing plants, one at Utica and the other at Elion were chosen as the strategic points, and in "covering" them Company B of the First Infantry set a record for speed and efficiency, the motor cars getting the soldiers to these points at a hitherto impossible speed.

Recounts Unexpected Sale

The following letter has just come in from (deleted), Ford agent in (deleted), Ohio, and recounts a most unexpected Ford sale:

"We have just sold and delivered a Ford runabout, and believe you will be much surprised when we say that the buyer is in the automobile agency business himself."

"The party was (deleted), of (deleted) & (deleted), agents for the (deleted) car. He has spoken to us on the street several times, but we did not take him seriously until today, when he came down and wanted to know if we had a runabout in stock. We went after him then, with the above-stated result."

"This is his third Ford, but to have him buy one while working the (deleted), is like a clap of thunder from a clear sky, to us."

Even the casual reader will note the thorough work of the censor in trimming this communication to fit the proprieties. We vouch for the authenticity of the incident, however.

Many Sales Are Reported

The Universal Motor company, agents for the Ford automobile, which is one of the popular cars in Scioto county, reports the delivery of the following machines in the past week:

Alexander Lovey, Pond Creek, touring car; J. South, Friendship, roadster; S. W. Shoemaker, Harrisonville, touring car; Henry Scott, 1927 Robinson avenue, touring car; George Walsh, Otway, touring car; Hiram Hickman, city, touring car, and Allen Keller, Scioto, touring car.

GIVE YOUR BEST.

Postponement of a righteous act is never right. The sooner we sow the seeds of love the sooner we begin to reap the bountiful harvest of happiness and joy. The sooner we give to the world the best we have the sooner the best will begin to come back to us; if not in visible material things, then in what is much to be desired—spiritual and mental delights.—Selected.

The Penny of England. Most ancient of English coins, the penny has experienced many changes in its long history. Until the time of Edward I., when halfpennies and farthings were first coined, the penny was deeply indented with a cross, so that it could easily be broken into four parts. It was originally of silver and was gradually reduced in weight, was debased at sundry times and in 1397 was coined in copper. The copper penny continued down to 1800, when the bronze penny, as it exists today, was first introduced.

Looking For Consolation? Here It Is

Although there has been a slight advance in tire prices, the motorist may find consolation in the thought that tires now cost only one-third as much and give about ten times as much mileage as they did a decade ago.

The present advance is only a drop in the bucket—a step backward, if you will, but certainly not to be compared to the rough and tumble prices of gasoline that we all see every year.

The tire that costs you $20.00 now, used to cost $60.00.

You can safely expect from five to ten thousand miles from it. In the old days you were lucky if you got from five hundred to a thousand miles.

One of the strangest automobile thefts on record is that perpetrated by an unknown man who stole a Studebaker car belonging to H. A. Bosse, of Bisbee, Ariz., drove it to Milwaukee, Wis., bought gasoline, had it charged to Mr. Bosse, and then disappeared. A reward has been offered for the car.

She starts like a Sprinter at the Crack of the Gun Jeffery Six

INSTANT response—spectacular performance—riding comfort and driving comfort—surpassing simplicity of design—these have made the Jeffery Six nationally known as the car which teaches you what the word MOVE really means. Step on the accelerator and the car is off like a sprinter at the crack of a gun—like a FLASH.

She picks up speed in a distance so short that you can't believe your eyes. You hit forty miles before you think you've hit twenty—and then—Step on the accelerator.

You'll have a new sensation. She literally leaps—like an eager thoroughbred—to tremendous speed in a moment.

Yet the motor is so quiet that men who haven't had their cars for more than a few days almost put the self-starter out of commission by throwing it in when the car is standing still and they think the motor has stopped—when it hasn't.

And it's all velvety power and velvety speed. There is no vibration—no uncomfortable jolting—nothing but superlative riding comfort and driving comfort—because of the wonderful motor and simple chassis construction.

Have you seen the Jeffery Six? If you haven't—do it now. You gain nothing by delay. Our allotment is rapidly dwindling and the factory cannot increase its output.

The price is $1450—and the amount of value, power and speed which you get for every dollar of that price is best shown by the fact that within thirty days after the first appearance of this car the Thomas B. Jeffery Company had to double its planned output of it—because of the immediate and extraordinary demand.

Come in and look it over—and ask us to demonstrate every claim we make.

More important than the number of cylinders in your car, is the number of Miles in Your Tire.

The one dominant feature of 1916 cars is the sensational development in Multi-Cylinder motors. Everybody is talking about 4, 6, 8 or 12 cylinders. All this means improved power—power to turn the wheels.

But no matter how many cylinders your car has, remember the final point of contact between the driving cylinder power and the resistance of the road surface, are the tires.

SCENES OF JOY CHANGE TO SORROW WHEN DEATH SUDDENLY CLAIMS WILLIAM BISHOP

Joyous scenes attending wedding festivities suddenly changed to deepest grief and sorrow when William Bishop, aged 75 years, a retired farmer, died very suddenly at his home near Buena Vista, Friday night at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Bishop's daughter, Mrs. Rosa Strupe-Watson, who at Vancouber Thursday was married to Samuel Watson, of Leander, Johnson county, Ky., had just departed from the Bishop family home with her husband for Catletsburg en route to their future home when Mr. Bishop after briefly visiting a neighbor and while preparing to retire suffered a paralytic stroke. He had just removed his shoes when stricken and died within an hour. Although he had been in failing health of late Mr. Bishop managed to remain up and about and none seemed to be in better spirits than was he at the reception held in honor of his newly-married daughter and her husband at his home Thursday evening.

Mr. Bishop was a native of Wisconsin and came to Buena Vista from Guyandotte, W. Va. six years ago. He was a veteran of the Civil war, a member of the Buena Vista Methodist church and liked and respected by all who knew him.

He leaves to mourn his death, his widow, Mrs. Rebecca Bishop and the following children: George, Fred and Ben Bishop, steelworkers, of New Boston; Mrs. Amanda Clark, Mrs. Julia Meeling and Mrs. Minda Holland of Guyandotte, W. Va.; Mrs. Rosa Strupe-Watson, of Leander, Ky.; John Bishop, of Guyandotte and Miss Naomi Bishop, at home.

No arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral.

CHALMER SALES SHOW INCREASE

Chalmers is right and that the Chalmers sales organization is pushing in on this wonderful car to the fullest possible extent.

High Standard Of Excellence

We Reo Folk are not a little elated over the fact that in the New Reo Six we have been able to not only set a higher standard of mechanical excellence, and to achieve a new mark in values, but also to have produced the Fashion Plate from which other makers will copy their new models. That this new Reo Six has in fact set the fashion in body design for the coming year, you will realize when you see the various new models as they appear from time to time.

New Buick Light Six Has "Gasoline" Record

Twenty-five and a fifth miles to the gallon of gasoline as an average result of a series of three tests!

Such is the phenomenal fuel economy record established for six-cylinder cars in Western Washington by a Buick light six touring car, driven by George Purdy, Seattle, Wash., and carrying four passengers. James G. Fenton, city sales manager, and George Purdy, traveling representative of the Buick distributing agency, equipped one of the three-passenger Buick six touring cars with a special gallon can, and, accompanied by two newspaper men, piloted the car over the Pacific Highway from Seattle to Tacoma and return on March 11.

A short distance beyond the Auburn crossing on the Pacific Highway the engine sputtered and went on a hunger strike. The odometer read 24.1 miles.

Continuing over the paved highway, the Buick whizzed into Tacoma, purged its way through the traffic in Pacific avenue, then back over the same thoroughfare to begin the return trip over the Pacific Highway again. A stop of a few minutes was made in Tacoma for lunch.

Near Sumner the motor had consumed every drop of the second gallon of gasoline that had been put into the gallon tank and refused to go any further. To the surprise of the four passengers the record of the first leg had been beaten. The odometer reading 25.1 miles for the second gallon.

Hudson Sixes Popular With Those Who Know

A most important attainment in a motor is high speed capacity. That is the highest possible revolutions per minute. Power alone may be attained by the use of large cylinders, as in marine motors. But they prohibit high engine speed. They forbid flexibility and quick acceleration. They are heavy and wasteful of fuel. Motor car requirements call for small engines run at higher speed.

The difficulty has lain in vibration. The four-cylinder engine is unbalanced at all speeds. It develops excessive vibration. The tax on the bearings is heavy, the loss of power tremendous.

This fact forced the change to Sixes. But even the Six at first failed to lessen vibration greatly. That's why early Sixes were slow in displacing Fours. Then came the idea of the light Six, with small bore and high speed. It was pioneered and developed by Hudson engineers. That meant lighter parts, lessening vibration and thus increasing engine speed.

Along these lines Hudson made enormous advances. Hudson Sixes soon outsold any other fine car built. They attained results heretofore unknown in lightness, flexibility, economy, speed and power.

A Cement Cottage

FIRST FLOOR

SECOND FLOOR

This is a cement house with walls constructed of hollow tile or brick. The simple treatment of the roof with the pleasing grouping of windows give this house a decidedly homelike effect. The same character, however, would be kept at less expense if wood frame were used, with the walls clapboarded or shingled. The railing indicated on the kitchen porch is composed of 1/2" sawed boards, a departure cheaper than spindles with a great deal more character.

The large living room across the front with the entrance hall at one end and an inglenook with chimney seats at the other, a combined width of 33 feet, and the dining room opening off the center of the living room give a feeling of great space and the effect of an exceedingly large house. The library is accessible from either the dining room or living room with a toilet room conveniently placed. Combination stairs lead to the second floor, which contains four bedrooms, a closet for each room, large storage closet and bathroom. One or two bedrooms can be finished off in the attic if desired. Basement under entire house.

Cost $3600. Size 34x27 feet. Can be built for from $3000 to $5000.

The Tallow Dip Goes Out!

A Boston firm, which operated the largest tallow dip factory in the country, which, of a fact, was about the sole survivor in this once general and flourishing industry, announced, last week, that it would discontinue the making of the candles. Thus another institution of the past makes surrender to progress. A generation ago not only every well regulated, but most every family of every kind, kept a stock of tallow candles on hand, according to their prudence and means. Now most families, especially those in town, have little knowledge of this mode of lighting and less use for it. That is rather strange for the tallow dip still remains with us as the measure of light. For we still speak and will so continue for many years, of a given brilliancy as so many candle power, 16-candle, 40-candle, 60-candle, 80-candle, 1200-candle and 2000-candle are terms of hourly use, in speaking of electric illumination. And could things thus so intimately connected be so far apart. The tallow dip was a necessity, but it was a nuisance. Danger and discomfort were its accompaniments and qualities. Recalls the hunting for a match, a place to strike it, the melted tallow running down onto fingers and scorching them, the upsetting of the pesky thing when it was set down without its "stick," which by-the-way wasn't a stick at all, but a hollow tube with a base in which the candle was stuck, that is when the family had enough "sticks," but a family was never known to have enough for every candle in use. Well, may be there was one family that had enough, but memory recalls no instance where an extra candle and a stick could be found in speaking distance of each other. Still, we wouldn't speak altogether disparagingly of the tallow dip; it had its uses and it was mighty handy at times. It is not at all the same with the electric candle. It is absolutely the most wonderful of all inventions because it is a prime necessity and at the same time the best of all comforts and the finest of luxuries. You often here people say they would like to have a taste of luxury—they can get it almost for nothing in the electric current. There isn't a particle of noise, dirt, disorder, confusion or annoyance about it, scarce so much an effort required to reach its enjoyment. Merely pressing a button brings a veritable flood of light, the cooling breezes to blowing, or the water steaming on the stove—things of more life and daily importance to you than that its moves the cars along the streets and across country, whirled the big wheels in industries, and talks clear around the earth and chatters through invisible space. It is the pleasant thing, the comfortable thing, the important thing, the useful thing, the necessities thing, the one luxurious thing you can demand in your home and know you are doing the most economical thing. Whether you own your home or rent it, you ought to see it has electric service.

We will be glad to talk to you anytime about how little it costs and what are its manifold advantages.

Champs Win Final Game In Frankfort, Three Pitchers Used

Dilts Enacted The Role Of Rescue Heaver Yesterday; In Huntington Today

Frankfort, Ky., June 9. Frankfort used two pitchers and Portsmouth three to stop heavy slugging, today's feature. The breaks were for Portsmouth. By winning yesterday's game Portsmouth secured an even break here before moving on to Huntington, where a similar series, one that will be for "blud" will be opened Saturday.

Manager Spencer will probably use Jacobus and the Champs no doubt will face DeLottelle. Dilts not only enacted the role of a rescue pitcher, but he lined out three hits. His batting featured all four games here.

Bush, Spencer's new lead off man, made a fine impression here. He hit timely and stole a number of bases.

Speaker Leads, Ty Cobb Second

Chicago, June 10.—Ty Cobb has climbed into a tie for second place among the batters of the American League, according to averages printed here today and including records of games played yesterday. The old trio of Southerners who have been fighting for leadership honors for years are bunched at the top again, for Speaker is leading with .369 and Jackson and Cobb are neck at .327. Speaker also leads in runs scored, with 35, and in total bases with 38. Cobb is one of a quartet leading in base stealing, he, Schalk, Chicago, Walsh, Philadelphia and Sisler, St. Louis, having twelve each. Grane, Cleveland, leads in home runs with four. Detroit leads in team batting with .255. The 300 hitters of the American League counting only those who have played in half or more of their clubs' games, are: Speaker, Cleveland .369; Jackson, Chicago .327; Cobb, Detroit .327; Burns, Detroit .321; Struss, Philadelphia .313; E. Johnson, St. Louis .311; Hollman, Detroit .311; Naranjo, New York .308; Altan, Washington .301; Hohlitzel, Boston .302; Smith, Cleveland .300.

Daniels Leads

Daniels of Louisville leads the American Association batters again with .338. Jim Thorpe of Milwaukee, the famous Indian, has stolen twenty bases and is ahead of his competitors in that respect. Gilbert, Kansas City, leads home runs with five; Leary, Indianapolis, in total bases with 71, and Holland, Minneapolis, is ahead in runs scored with 29. Indianapolis leads in club batting .263. Three hundred hitters for half or more of the game:

Daniels, Louisville .336; Chappelle, Columbus .330; Reagan, Kansas City .324; Bronkie, Indianapolis .318; Slovati, Toledo .317; Pave, Kansas City .310; Whitman, Louisville .307; Lelivell, Kansas City .306; Leonard, Columbus .300.

Each Team Is Blanked

Huntington and Lexington divided a double header Friday. The Colts winning the first one, 4 to 0 and the Boosters the second one, 5 to 0. Rorer and Smith pitched the winners and King and McHenry the losers. The scores:

Lexington.....0 2 0 0 0 0 0 0-1
Second game—Huntington.....1 0 0 2 0 0 1 0-5

ENFORCED IDLENESS EXPENSIVE TO TEAMS

The atrocious weather this week has cost organized baseball thousands of dollars. Neither the Reds nor the Giants have played a game for three days and many teams have not played a single game this week. And the Giants expected to draw from 12,000 to 15,000 fans every day on their present home stay. The weather man has evidently conspired against the grand old game this season.

Umpire's Decision Sustained

Chicago, June 10.—President B. R. Johnson of the American League, has sustained a decision of Umpire Chell in the Boston-Cleveland game last Saturday which was today established a precedent for plays in which an umpire interferes with a base runner. The decision of Chell, against which Boston protested, was that the runner return to his base. So far as known, no similar case has occurred in major league baseball and it not covered by the rules.

JAKE DAUBERT BOSS HITTER IN NATIONAL

Veterans are setting the pace for batters in the National League. Daubert maintains his lead and Schulte hangs on to second place, with Robertson and Zimmerman having passed Doyle. Bonile Kauff, the Federal League's all-around star, has at last cut loose on the bases and with a record of sixteen thefts has tied Max Carey of Pittsburgh for the first time. Williams, Chicago, is still the pace getter for the home run hitters with seven, and with Zimmerman tied for total bases lead with 91. New York leads in team hitting with .263. Iroh, Cincinnati, is ahead in runs scored with 32. The National's 300 hitters are: Daubert, Brooklyn .355; Schulte, Chicago .339; Robertson, New York .336; Zimmerman, Chicago .335; Doyle, New York .327; Chase, Cincinnati .311; Gonzalez, St. Louis .309; Hinchman, Pittsburgh .319; Meyers, Brooklyn .311; Wheat, Brooklyn .310; Gravath, Philadelphia .302; Burns, Philadelphia .300.

MR. McLEAN'S DEATH

John H. McLean, who died at Washington Friday, was a remarkable man, a great man, far above the ordinary run in many respects. He was a forceful figure in Ohio affairs for many years, and through his great newspaper, the Cincinnati Enquirer, he exercised tremendous influence upon political matters for a quarter of a century. It was characteristic of a man of his forceful nature that he should have warm, devoted friends and bitter enemies and there will be widely varying opinions as to whether or not his influence was for good or evil. Much of the enmity against Mr. McLean came however from his insistence that his newspapers should print the news and tell the truth, regardless of effect upon the fortunes of candidates or parties. Truth is sometimes not palatable to politicians and it is hard for some to forgive publications that seem to have disastrous effect upon their fortunes. To our mind the finest thing Mr. McLean ever did was his determination to make a newspaper out of the Cincinnati Enquirer and not an organ. He was a pioneer in this field and the soundness of his action is shown by the great prestige and prosperity the Enquirer has enjoyed.

OBJECTS TO EXHIBIT

Editor John D. Littlejohn, of the Wellston Sentinel, does not believe the right thing was done in exhuming the body of Mrs. Jordan and has this to say about it:

There have been many murders in Scioto county that have evolved themselves into mysteries that so far have proved unsolvable. The recent murder of Mrs. Jordan has added to the mysteriousness. It rather looked like the husband did the killing until a little son happened to inquire of his little brother, "why did you shoot my mamma?" The latter boy had charged his father with doing it. Now, the prosecution has taken the gruesome step of having the body of the woman exhumed and belated for an exhibit in the trial of the husband.

To a lay mind it looks like the evidence taken at the coroner's inquest as to the wounds on the body would be all that is necessary or required by law, instead of making a gruesome parade of the poor woman's head solely for sensational purposes to back up a prosecution that is not certain of itself. The By-the-Way-Man believes that an indictment would lay for desecration of the grave and mutilation of the body after death in this instance.

As a friend and admirer of the personal graces and beauty of form possessed by our friend, Col. W. C. Sibley, editor of the Gallopia Tribune, we rise to protest against the alleged picture of him that appeared in the Cincinnati Times-Star Friday. In real life the Colonel is a sort of a second Adonis. The picture made him look like a cross between a pirate and a hangman. In real life the Colonel has a mild, meek expression that charms and inspires confidence. In the pictured man there is a fierce, blood-thirsty expression as if he were on murder bent. We hope the Colonel will sue for libel. We offer our services as an expert character witness.

The most pathetic thing in the world is for a lot of ordinarily level headed men to rave and rant for a candidate whom they know and every one else knows has not the ghost of a look-in for the nomination. As a concrete example note the "demonstration" at Chicago of the Ohio delegation for Burton.

We are confidently looking forward to cutting quite some ice when we go over to St. Louis next week to ratify President Wilson and his platform. At least St. Louis seems terribly excited over the prospect of our being in her midst, judging from the multitude and earnestness of invitations we have received from her leading business houses, dry goods stores, banks and breweries to call around, get acquainted and take a look—and in the case of breweries there is also an invitation to sample goods.

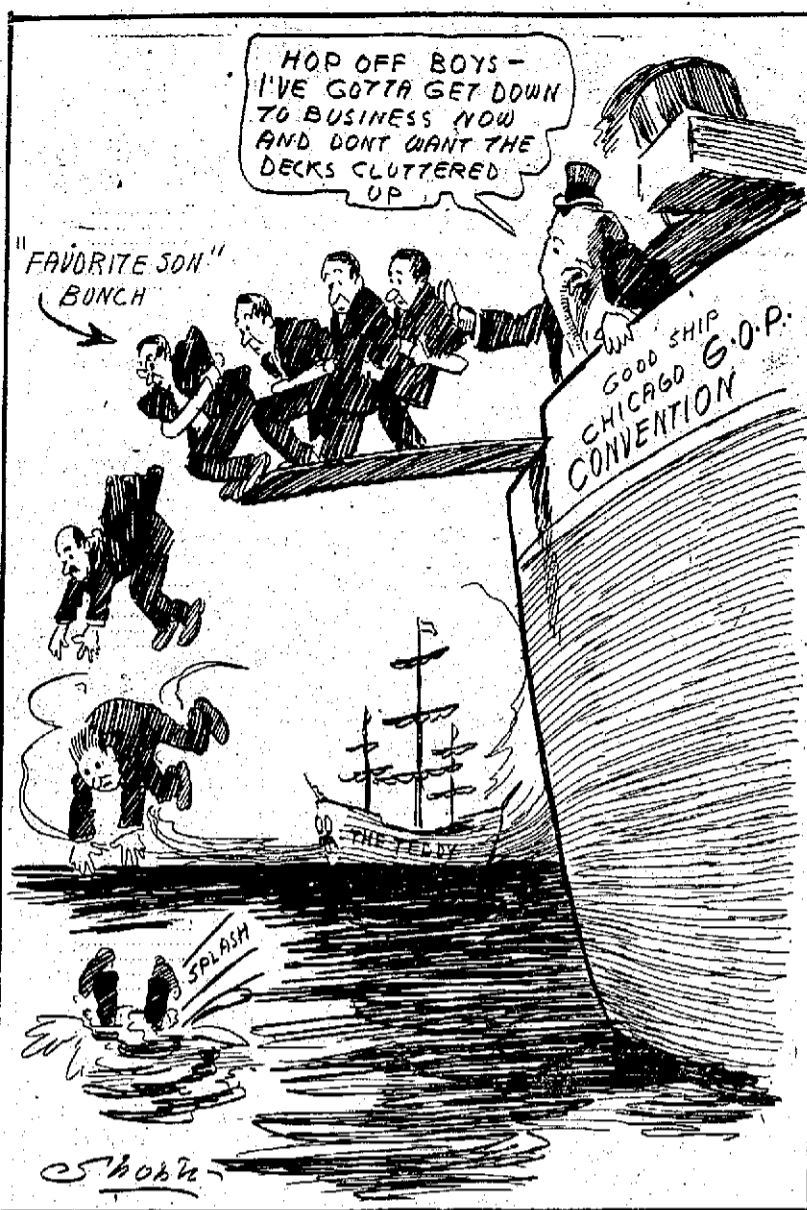

How comes it that the most peerless Progressive of them all, Mr. John Reilly remained in his tent in his home town when the idol of his dreams was sweating, perspiring and fulminating in his great, patriotic effort to save the country. Is not this treason of the deepest dye?

Oak Hill has a brick paved street and also a macadam street. The other night a big rainstorm came up and when the rain ceased falling the macadam road was a wreck, the surface having been washed away. The brick roadway stood as fine and good as before the rain. There in a few words stands the argument in favor of brick construction in order to insure permanent roads. Or rather there is no argument about it. It is the case conclusively made up and the verdict returned.

Well, anyway, we will not even have to worry the teeniest bit about who is going to preside over the convention or the platform it is to adopt when we all gather together at St. Louis next week as the free and untrammelled representatives of the great Democratic party. We are told by the veracious Associated Press that leaders at Washington have selected the chairmen and are engaged in writing the platform. So all we will have to do will be to vote aye and yell lustily at the proper time.

Men were walking the streets of Chicago all night this week, but it was impossible to tell whether they were delegates or the rear-guard of the preparedness parade just getting home.—Grand Rapids Press.

ABOUT DUE TO WALK THE PLANK

THE WAY THINGS GROW

(From The Oak Hill Press.)

One day recently one of the local merchants came to us to secure some information regarding the newspapers in Scioto county. When he was told that there was but one paper in the county, he would hardly believe us—"a county as big as Scioto and a town as big as Portsmouth and only one newspaper! How in the world does that happen?"

We answered him by stating that the one surviving newspaper had not only held its own while others went to the wall, but had actually gained in prestige, worth, and advertising, ever since it was started. The reason it was able to do this was because the men at the helm saw far ahead. They did not try to get rich quick by giving the minimum amount of news and at the same time charging the maximum advertising rate. They were looking forward to the future. When there were a few extra dollars profit the owners did not stick it down in their jeans, but put it right back into the plant in increased equipment. That policy has been followed since the very start of the business and today that paper stands head and shoulders above all newspapers published in Southern Ohio, with the possible exception of some of those published in Cincinnati. That newspaper has gained a hold upon the reading public and the advertising merchants that is so strong that the bonds cannot be broken. The policy of modest profits and steadily increased service to readers and advertisers has placed the paper above competition.

This same policy is the one that is successful in all lines of business. The fellow who attempts to give as little as possible for a certain amount of money and does nothing to set his business ahead will never attain success. It is the fellow who gives all he possibly can for every dollar spent with him and invests the surplus profits in bettering his service is the fellow that will make a success of his business every time.

Now that the Republican platform has been adopted we may expect one-half of the press to laud it and the other to decry, both without reading it.

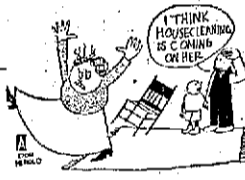

Not by way of boasting, but just in statement of a plain fact, we'll observe, no one has run across any other paper that had it on The Times, this week, in giving the big news.

The West Virginia primary ought to be sufficient to convince even William Jennings Bryan that the best of human inventions has its weak points.

They are pretty much alike. Berlin now comes forward and admits the sinking of two additional battle cruisers in the North Sea fight, which was denied before for "military reasons". Maybe there is some significance in the fact that no explicit denial has yet been given to the British claim that the battleship Hindenberg was also sunk.

Everyday Wisdom

By DON HEROLD

HOUSECLEANING
It is a woman's nature. We who have studied them and her, know. They seem quiet, demure, pacific, lovable, home-loving, and motherly. But they are full of dynamite. Once a year they get home-hating. Once a year a woman has to shoot up her home.

A woman can clean house one week in the spring and be content to settle down and live a steady, sober Christian life the remaining fifty-two weeks of the year.

First, she disembowels the attic and all the closets. She turns them inside out into the main part of the house. Then she turns all the tables and chairs upside down in the middle of the floor and jumps up and down on them and shrieks in mad housecleaning glee. Then she jerks the rug out from under the mass. This mixes everything up beyond recognition. She shrieks some more. "Ha-ha-ha-ha-ha!" When the man-husband of the wild woman comes home at night he is put to sleep in the upstairs hall on a mattress on the floor. He goes to bed with victrola records, shoe-trees, spring hats, clothes hangers, picture books, curtain rods and chiffonier castors. He knows he has married a Mrs. Jekyll and Mrs. Hyde.

As Sherman has said, "Housecleaning is awful!"

What The Fairy Queen Did

A PAINTY LITTLE blue-eyed fairy home all the whole day long. You peeped out of her flower home and think that was better treatment than looked at the world. She was so such a cross fairy deserved? Well, pretty and sweet and everything that a fairy ought to be that you were sure the minute you saw her that she was a nice fairy—the kind of a fairy you would like to know. That is, you were sure until she spoke. Then you were sure she was not the kind of a fairy you would like to know. For what do you suppose she said? Listen!

"Oh, dear! What a horrid, tiresome world this is!" she trilled. "And I suppose I shall have to get up."

Just that way—think of it! Now of course fairies don't often talk that way. I should say not! And of course this fairy was tired from working unusually hard the evening before and she naturally did not feel like getting up. Still, that was not the way for her to talk, was it? At least the fairy queen thought it was not.

For you must know, the fairy queen heard her and was much disappointed to find that one of her very own subjects talked in such a fashion. "I must stop that," said the fairy queen, and she flew at once over to the grumbling fairy.

"Good morning, fairy dear," said the fairy queen kindly. "What can I do for you this morning?"

"You can get me my breakfast," answered the cross fairy, "get it for me without my moving a bit."

And immediately, almost before the fairy finished her sentence, there was a breakfast of honey and dew right on the edge of the flower, ready for eating!

The fairy queen waited till the breakfast was all eaten up, then she said, "And now what can I do for you?"

"Do my work, so that I can stay and rest in this flower all the whole day long," said the little fairy.

So the fairy queen, without a word, made me happy, but I didn't know it grumbling fairy stay in her flower till just now.

And all day long the cross little fairy stayed in her flower home; and she got tired and tired and her legs felt cramped and stiff and she wanted so much to run and work.

But she couldn't, you see, because she had wished to stay in her flower.

Finally, when the evening shadows began to grow across the grass, the fairy queen came back to the cross little fairy.

"Now, fairy dear, is there anything more I can do for you?" said she. "I want you to be happy, as you used to be. You may have one more wish."

"I wish to work—that will make me happy," said the little fairy, who wasn't cross any more; "that will make me happy, but I didn't know it grumbling fairy stay in her flower till just now."

And all day long the cross little fairy stayed in her flower home; and she got tired and tired and her legs felt cramped and stiff and she wanted so much to run and work.

But she couldn't, you see, because she had wished to stay in her flower.

Finally, when the evening shadows began to grow across the grass, the fairy queen came back to the cross little fairy.

"Now, fairy dear, is there anything more I can do for you?" said she. "I want you to be happy, as you used to be. You may have one more wish."

"I wish to work—that will make me happy," said the little fairy, who wasn't cross any more; "that will make me happy, but I didn't know it grumbling fairy stay in her flower till just now."

Crash!

I know a most destructive chap. What'er he tried to take. Into his hands was sure to fall Upon the floor and break.

A business venture which he tried Quite soon became a joke. He broke the record for bad bills, And then himself went broke.

A job within a glassware store Was noisy, bright and grim. He dropped whatever came to hand, And then the firm dropped him.

I met him just the other day, Whole-hearted, free from guile. But just to prove he'd not reformed, The dern cracked a smile. Frank W. Gurney in The Shoeman.

Perishable

Pemine complexions often resemble small boys—they won't wash.

Editor Lays Two Eggs

The Christian church of Knob Noster had an empty egg case by the door a recent Sunday morning and everybody entering was expected to place an egg therein. Editor Hodges, who has accustomed liberality of editors, laid two eggs—Cass County (Mo.) Leader.

Not a Philosopher

A dear, but very literal little girl, was proudly exhibiting a small dog which had recently been given her. "Father named him Plato," she said, "because he plays with the baby's toes." "He is a philosopher, I see," said the grown-up friend. "Oh, no," said the child with very wide open eyes, "he is a fox terrier."

Didn't Need It

Dentist—"What! You don't want gas?" You insisted upon having gas the last time.

Victim—"You haven't been eating onions this time."

Two of a Kind

A gentleman on the platform of a railway station said to a small boy: "Can you tell me what the next train goes for?"

The small boy did not answer. He merely grinned. The gentleman put his question again, with the same result. He then strode angrily away. A youth who was standing near said to the boy:

"Why did you not answer the gentleman?" The boy laughed ruefully. "Do you think I w-wanted a licking? He'd think I w-was m-mocking him."

A Lay Brother

A school teacher was reading a story to a class of very small folks and paused at the words "lay brother" to explain their meaning.

"Does any one know what 'lay brother' means?" she asked.

For a moment a row of perplexed little faces looked up at her. Then one face brightened suddenly and a small voice piped, "Yes, ma'am—it's a rooster!"

No Use For a Husband

A famous woman novelist was once asked why she had not married.

"I have three things about the house," she said, "which represent so closely the characteristics of the average man that I don't want any more of him."

"What do you mean?" was asked.

"Well," the novelist replied, "I've got a dog that growls all the morning, a parrot that swears all the afternoon and a cat that stays out all night."

A Hard Bed

"It's pretty hard to sleep on an empty stomach," said the tramp wearily to the bustling farmer's wife.

"Why, you poor fellow!" she replied. "Why don't you turn over and sleep on your back for a little while? Ye hain't wore it out yet!"

Keeping Secrets

Katherine and Margaret found themselves seated next each other at a dinner party and immediately became confidential.

"Molly told me that you told her that secret I told you not to tell her," whispered Margaret.

"Oh, isn't she a mean thing!" gasped Katherine. "Why, I told her not to tell you!"

"Well," returned Margaret, "I told her I wouldn't tell you she told me—so don't tell her I did."

G. O. P. NOMINATES HUGHES; TEDDY IS BULL MOOSE CHOICE

HUGHES CHOSEN ON THIRD BALLOT

(BULLETIN)

Coliseum, Chicago, June 10---Justice Hughes, of New York, was nominated for president by the Republican convention this afternoon on the third ballot by an almost unanimous vote.

The unofficial vote on the third ballot follows: Hughes 949 1-2; DuPont 5; Roosevelt 18 1-2; Weeks 3; LaFollette 3; Lodge 7; absent 1; total 987.

The republican convention was again late in assembling this morning. At 11 o'clock the convention hall was filling slowly and many gallery seats were vacant.

The weary delegates, enthusiastic at the prospect that this would be the last day, spent the time discussing possibilities down at the auditorium and reading news bulletins. The overnight switch of some of the favorite sons delegates filled the Hughes men with exultation and they came in early, confident of nominating their man on the first ballot today--the third of the convention--and sure they would do it on the next, but most of them said a fourth ballot would not be necessary. Discussion of vice presidential nominations were general, but not definite.

The convention was assembling when John McGrath, Col. Roosevelt's secretary, arrived on the platform and talked with some of the leaders. Not many of them had arrived, however, and McGrath waited.

Some of the republicans on the platform said there was nothing significant in McGrath's visit.

Senator Wadsworth of New York says many of the Root votes in the delegation would go to Hughes on the first ballot today.

Chairman Harding said this of McGrath's visit:

"We are going to get together."

He did not amplify this statement.

THE VOTE

Coliseum, Chicago, June 10---The following is the Republican vote on the third ballot:

Alabama: Hughes 16.

Arizona: Hughes 5; Roosevelt 1.

Arkansas: Hughes 15.

California: Hughes 26.

Colorado: Hughes 9; Roosevelt 3.

Deciding vote on Hughes reached on New Jersey vote.

Connecticut: Hughes 14.

DuPont's name was withdrawn and Delaware delegation cast for Hughes.

Delaware: Hughes 6.

Florida: Hughes 8.

Georgia: Hughes 17.

Idaho: Hughes 8.

Illinois: Hughes 58.

Days of Indiana withdraws Fairbanks and cast delegation for Hughes.

Indiana: Hughes 30.

Wadsworth of New York withdraws Root.

Iowa: Withdraws Cummins and cast delegation for Hughes.

Iowa: Hughes 26.

Kansas: Hughes 20.

Kentucky: Hughes 26.

Louisiana: Hughes 12.

Maine: Hughes 12.

Maryland: Hughes 15; Roosevelt 1.

Massachusetts: Weeks 1; Roosevelt 3; Hughes 32.

Michigan: Hughes 30.

Minnesota: Hughes 24.

Mississippi: Roosevelt 3 1-2; Hughes 8 1-2.

FINAL BULLETINS

Gov. Willis, of Ohio, withdraws Burton.

Congressman Rodenburg of Illinois was recognized and withdrew Sherman.

The roll for the third ballot was ordered.

As state after state voted solidly for Hughes, and others changed to him, it became evident the nomination would be practically unanimous.

Stevenson, of Colorado, moved nomination of Hughes by acclamation. Delegate Stevenson of Colorado speaking for the delegates in the convention who have been supporting Col. Roosevelt withdrew his name from further consideration.

In Agreement.

"Do you think your constituents agree with your views?"

"Yes," replied Senator Sorghum. "I made it a point to have my views in agreement with theirs before I said a word."--Washington Star.

COLISEUM BULLETINS

The Republican convention was again late in assembling. At 11 o'clock the convention hall was filling slowly and many gallery seats were vacant.

John McGrath, Theodore Roosevelt's secretary, appeared on the platform. Chairman Harding was asked what it meant.

"We are going to get together," he said.

The Ohio delegation has appointed a committee of their number to canvass the situation with the view that the 48 votes of the state be cast as a unit.

It is definitely stated Fairbanks has released all his supporters except the Indiana delegation which will cast one more ballot for him.

Ex-Secretary Stimson stated the New York delegation with possibly a few exceptions will go to Hughes, and to Fairbanks for vice president.

Senator Penrose says the sentiment seems to be all for Fairbanks for second place and he knows he will accept.

Ohio delegation with one possible exception will vote for Hughes.

The chair recognized Senator Smoot to present the peace conference report.

He announced the Progressive members of the peace committee had presented to the Progressive convention for consideration the name of Justice Hughes. Cheers followed.

Mr. Smoot then read Colonel Roosevelt's letter to the Progressive convention, explaining that it had been brought to the Coliseum by Mr. McGrath, since the peace conference met.

AUDITORIUM BULLETINS

Instructions to delegates on how to make a termination unanimous without calling a roll were given from the rostrum by Secretary Davis.

Bainbridge Colby has been selected by the progressives to place Roosevelt in nomination at the auditorium.

At 10:41 a. m. the Progressive convention came to order at the call of Chairman Robins.

Chairman Robins aroused the delegates to cheers by announcing that "We are going to do just what we came to Chicago to do."

"The convention will never stand for a compromise," Governor Johnson said during the reading of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram. "It will nominate Roosevelt."

Governor Johnson did not come to the platform with the other conferees. He occupied a seat in extreme rear of the hall with the California delegates.

Chairman Perkins was greeted with a demonstration of approval when he said: "I may have done well or may have done poorly in the conference." His statement that Colonel Roosevelt may be acting well or unwisely was received in silence.

Colonel Roosevelt's telegram suggesting Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts is a second choice to offer the republicans as a compromise was greeted with shouts of "No, No."

When Mr. Perkins concluded by urging the convention to abide by Colonel Roosevelt's request and defer action until the other convention passed on the suggestion of Senator Lodge as a compromise candidate the delegates acquiesced with shouts of "that's right, that's right."

Captain John M. Parker of New Orleans addressed the convention in behalf of those who "had burned the bridges behind them" when they joined the Progressive party four years ago. He opposed any compromise that would sidetrack Roosevelt. His every sentence was cheered.

When the demonstration following Captain Parker's address had been silenced the platform was formally adopted without a roll call.

Chairman Robins said the order was to proceed with nominations for president and vice president. Chairman O'Connell of New York, was recognized for motion to suspend the rules and proceed with nominations. Hamilton Fish, Jr., challenged O'Connell's request to speak for a majority of the delegation. A poll was ordered.

The New York delegation upon being polled, rejected the motion to suspend the rules and make nominations the order of business, the vote being 55 to 32.

Answering demands for an immediate nomination of Colonel Roosevelt, Chair Robins said the convention "would not proceed to adopt the platform or make nominations" without giving the conference committee a reasonable time to report.

TEDDY NOMINATED BY ACCLAMATION

(BULLETIN)

Auditorium, Chicago, June 10---Col. Roosevelt was nominated by acclamation at the Progressive convention this afternoon.

Chicago, June 10---The Progressive National Convention assembled at 10:30 o'clock with the prospect that Colonel Roosevelt would be nominated almost immediately. After meeting with the republican peace managers, the progressive leaders expressed the opinion that the nomination of the colonel was inevitable unless he himself should forbid it.

It was understood that Senator Smoot had submitted a proposal to the progressives which was placed in writing.

While it was felt in some quarters that the progressive convention might nominate Colonel Roosevelt today it was also believed that the nomination of Hughes would not prove wholly objectionable to the progressive leaders and that they might endorse him, Colonel Roosevelt withdrawing if he were named.

Expected Nomination

By Acclamation

As the delegates came into the convention hall from their meeting with the progressive peace conferees, the delegation chairman were pounced upon by the delegates and got the word that had gone forth that Colonel Roosevelt was to be instantly named and by acclamation with only a formal vote for record purposes.

When the leaders demanded that the convention be immediately convened, Chairman Robins ordered the stage hurriedly cleared. Hurry To Proceed

With Nomination

At 10:41 Chairman Robins began pounding his gavel. There was a show of haste to proceed to nominations before the republican convention should convene at 11 o'clock. About one third of the delegates were absent when the opening gavel banged.

"Let us be seated quickly," said Chairman Robins earnestly. Two shrill tools of a whistle somewhat relieved a tense strain. Chairman Robins announced that the convention should proceed deliberately and in order and said the first business was a report from the conference committee.

Says Roosevelt

Will Accept

Henry Allen, one of the favorite leaders of the progressives said just before the hour for convening today: "We will not wait until the republicans act." He declared the progressive leaders had been in conversation with Roosevelt over the long distance.

"Would Colonel Roosevelt refuse to accept?"

"No," said Allen.

"He seemed to think once again there would be three parties in the field."

Wanted to Wait

On Chairman

Chester Rowell of California told of the conference of state chairmen. Mr. Rowell said they requested that the convention do not take any action until their arrival.

"How soon will they be here?" delegates shouted.

"Will you wait?" he asked.

"Yes, we'll wait," and "No, No," were shouted at Mr. Powell.

"We will wait a reasonable time," said Chairman Robins.

Mr. Robins said the convention would then proceed to nominations.

"This is not a time for speech but for action," he said, and then sent the convention into a demonstration by adding significantly, "We are going to do just what we came to Chicago to do." Chairman Robins asked that when nominating speeches are made the convention reserve its long applause for the end so that the speakers may not be interrupted.

Presage Early

End of Convention

The early end of the convention was also presaged by the announcement that a New York special would leave Chicago tonight if the convention adjourns before six o'clock.

The conference report was made by Mr. Perkins. He reiterated that at last night's meeting with the republican conferees, that the progressives were again asked for their second choice candidate for president.

This morning Mr. Perkins said the republicans had all agreed upon Justice Hughes and submitted his name to the progressives. He then recounted the conferences with the state chairmen.

Mr. Perkins then read the reply of the progressives who said they would take pleasure in suggesting "Justice Hughes" name to the progressive convention today.

Read Roosevelt

Telegram

The decision of the convention, Mr. Perkins added, was of vital importance to the country. A long telegram received this morning from Colonel Roosevelt to the progressive conferees was then read by Secretary Davis who said a copy had been sent to the republican conferees.

Colonel Roosevelt related how the republicans had asked for a second choice selection from the progressives.

"For months I have thought of this matter," Colonel Roosevelt said, declaring it was imperative to sink "all minor differences" and reach a common ground if possible. He recited the telegram sent to Former Senator Jackson.

Champs Win Final Game In Frankfort, Three Pitchers Used

Dilts Enacted The Role Of Rescue Heaver Yesterday; In Huntington Today

Frankfort, Ky., June 9. FRANKFORT used two pitchers and Portsmouth three to stop heavy slugging, today's feature. The breaks were for Portsmouth. By winning yesterday's game Portsmouth secured an even break here before moving on to Huntington, where a similar series, one that will be for "blud" will be opened Saturday.

Manager Spencer will probably use Jacobus and the Champs no doubt will face DeLottelle. Dilts not only enacted the role of a rescue pitcher, but he lined out three hits. His batting featured all four games here.

Bush, Spencer's new lead off man, made a fine impression here. He hit timely and stole a number of bases.

President William Gableman, of the local team, has received word from Pitcher Hubert Test that he will join the Champs in Huntington next Tuesday. This coming will mean that the hurling staff will be cut down.

The Chicago Cubs have opened negotiations with the Reds for infielder Fisher, the Coast star, who recently joined the Herzog clan. It is not likely that Fisher will be permitted to slip out of the hands of the Red manager.

Speaker Leads, Ty Cobb Second

Chicago, June 10.—Ty Cobb has climbed into a tie for second place among the batters of the American league, according to averages printed here today and including records of games played Wednesday. The old hero of Southerners who have been fighting for leadership honors for years are bunched at the top again, for Speaker is leading with .369 and Jackson and Cobb are neck and neck at .327. Speaker also leads in runs scored, with 35; and in total bases with 88. Cobb is one of a quartet leading in base stealing, he, Schalk, Chicago, Walsh, Philadelphia and Sisler, St. Louis, having twelve each. Graney, Cleveland, leads in home runs with four. Detroit leads in team batting with .253. The 300

Daniels Leads

Daniels of Louisville leads the American Association batters again with .336. Jim Thorpe of Milwaukee, the famous Indian, has stolen twenty bases and is far ahead of his competitors in that respect. Gilbert, Kansas City, leads in home runs with five. Leary, Indianapolis, in total bases with 71, and Holland, Minneapolis, is ahead in runs scored with 29. Indianapolis leads in club batting, .263. Three hundred hitters for half or more of the game.

Each Team Is Blanked

Huntington and Lexington divided a double header Friday, the Colts winning the first one, 4 to 0 and the Boosters the second one, 5 to 0. Horer and Smith pitched the winners and King and McCluskey the losers. The scores:

Lexington.....0 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 x-4

The atrocious weather this week has cost organized baseball thousands of dollars.

Neither the Reds nor the Giants have played a game for three days and many teams have not played a single game this week. And the Giants expected to draw from 15,000 to 15,000 fans every day on their present home stay. The weather man has evidently conspired against the grand old game this season.

Umpire's Decision Sustained

Chicago, June 10.—President D. E. Johnson, of the American League, has sustained a decision of Umpire Chilli in the Boston-Cleveland game last Saturday which was today established a precedent for plays in which an umpire interferes with a base runner. The decision of Chilli, against which Boston protested, was that the runner return to his base. So far as known, no similar case has occurred in major league baseball and it not covered by the rules.

Reeb Vs. De Lotelle

Many Portsmouth fans will motor to Huntington Sunday to witness the Portsmouth-Huntington game in that city.

They will get their first glimpse of Huntington's new park, which is within 6 minutes walk of the circus. This game will no doubt attract 2,000 fans to the Huntington yard. Reeb will probably be used in the box against the Boosters and the Champs will likely face De Lotelle.

JAKE DAUBERT BOSS HITTER IN NATIONAL

Veterans are setting the pace for batters in the National League. Daubert maintains his lead and Schulte hangs on to second place, with Robertson and Zimmerman having passed Doyle. Benito Kniff, the Federal League's all-around star, has at last cut loose on the bases and with a record of sixteen thefts has tied Max Carey of Pittsburgh for the first time. Williams, Chicago, is still the pacesetter for the home run jitters with seven; and with Zimmerman is tied for total bases lead with 31. New York leads in team hitting with 364. Groh, Cincinnati, is ahead in runs scored with 32.

The National's 300 hitters are:
Daubert, Brooklyn .335; Schulte, Chicago .339; Robertson, New York .337; Zimmerman, Chicago .335; Doyle, New York .327; Chase, Cincinnati .321; Gonzalez, St. Louis .320; Hutchinson, Philadelphia .319; Meyers, Brooklyn .311; Wheat, Brooklyn .310; Cravath, Philadelphia .302; Burns, Philadelphia .300.

MAKES DANDY LEAD OFF MAN

It was a happy thought on the part of Manager Spencer when he made a lead off man of Joe Bush. Joe is hitting timely and is fast on the bases. In the series at Frankfort the New York slater batted like a fiend.

Championship Game At Millbrook Sunday

The second game of the championship series between the Steel Plant team and the fast McDermott side will be staged in Millbrook park Sunday afternoon. The game will be called promptly at 2:30 o'clock. Schultz and Timmes will work for the Steel Plant team while Myers and Hazelbaker will be in the points for McDermott. Last Sunday in the first game of the series the Steel Plant won by a score of 7 to 5.

"A sensible cigarette—that's what I want"

There are a number of good cigarettes on the market—Fatimas are not the only ones.

But Fatimas are the best-liked and best-selling of all cigarettes costing over 5c.

Of course, your taste may be different—you may not like Fatimas as well as all these thousands of other men do.

But you can't deny that they are worth trying—not only for the delicious taste that has made them so famous, but also to see just how SENSIBLE they really are—sensible because Fatimas are cool and comfortable to the throat and tongue at all times and because they leave no "mean" or "heady" feeling even though you may smoke more often than usual.

If you would prove how really sensible a cigarette can be—try Fatimas.

MR. McLEAN'S DEATH

John R. McLean, who died at Washington Friday, was a remarkable man; a great man, far above the ordinary run in many respects. He was a forceful figure in Ohio affairs for many years, and through his great newspaper, the Cincinnati Enquirer, he exercised tremendous influence upon political matters for a quarter of a century. It was characteristic of a man of his forceful nature that he should have warm, devoted friends and bitter enemies and there will be widely varying opinions as to whether or not his influence was for good or evil. Much of the enmity against Mr. McLean came however from his insistence that his newspapers should print the news and tell the truth, regardless of effect upon the fortunes of candidates or parties. Truth is sometimes not palatable to politicians and it is hard for some to forgive publications that seem to have disastrous effect upon their fortunes. To our mind the finest thing Mr. McLean ever did was his determination to make a newspaper out of the Cincinnati Enquirer and not an organ. He was a pioneer in this field and the soundness of his action is shown by the great prestige and prosperity the Enquirer has enjoyed.

OBJECTS TO EXHIBIT

Editor John D. Littlejohn, of the Wellston Sentinel, does not believe the right thing was done in exhuming the body of Mrs. Jordan and has this to say about it:

There have been many murders in Scioto county that have evolved themselves into mysteries that so far have proved unsolvable. The recent murder of Mrs. Jordan has added to the mystery. It rather looked like the husband did the killing until a little son happened to inquire of his little brother, "why did you shoot my mamma?" The latter boy had charged his father with doing it. Now, the prosecution has taken the gruesome step of having the body of the woman exhumed and beheaded for an exhibit in the trial of the husband.

To a lay mind it looks like that the evidence taken at the coroner's inquest as to the wounds on the body would be all that is necessary or required by law, instead of making a gruesome parade of the poor woman's head solely for sensational purposes to back up a prosecution that is not certain of itself. The By-the-Way-Man believes that an indictment would lay for desecration of the grave and mutilation of the body after death in this instance.

As a friend and admirer of the personal graces and beauty of form possessed by our friend, Col. W. G. Sibley, editor of the Gallop Tribune, we rise to protest against the alleged picture of him that appeared in the Cincinnati Times-Star Friday. In real life the Colonel is a sort of a second Adonis. The picture made him look like a cross between a pirate and a hangman. In real life the Colonel has a mild, meek expression that charms and inspires confidence. In the pictured man there is a fierce, blood-thirsty expression as if he were on murder bent. We hope the Colonel will sue for libel. We offer our services as an expert character witness.

The most pathetic thing in the world is for a lot of ordinarily level headed men to rive and rant for a candidate whom they know and every one else knows has not the ghost of a look-in for the nomination. As a concrete example note the "demonstration" at Chicago of the Ohio delegation for Burton.

We are confidently looking forward to entering quite some ice when we go over to St. Louis next week to ratify President Wilson and his platform. At least St. Louis seems terribly excited over the prospect of our being in her midst, judging from the multitude and earnestness of invitations we have received from her leading business houses, dry goods stores, banks and breweries to call around, get acquainted and take a look—and in the case of breweries there is also an invitation to sample goods.

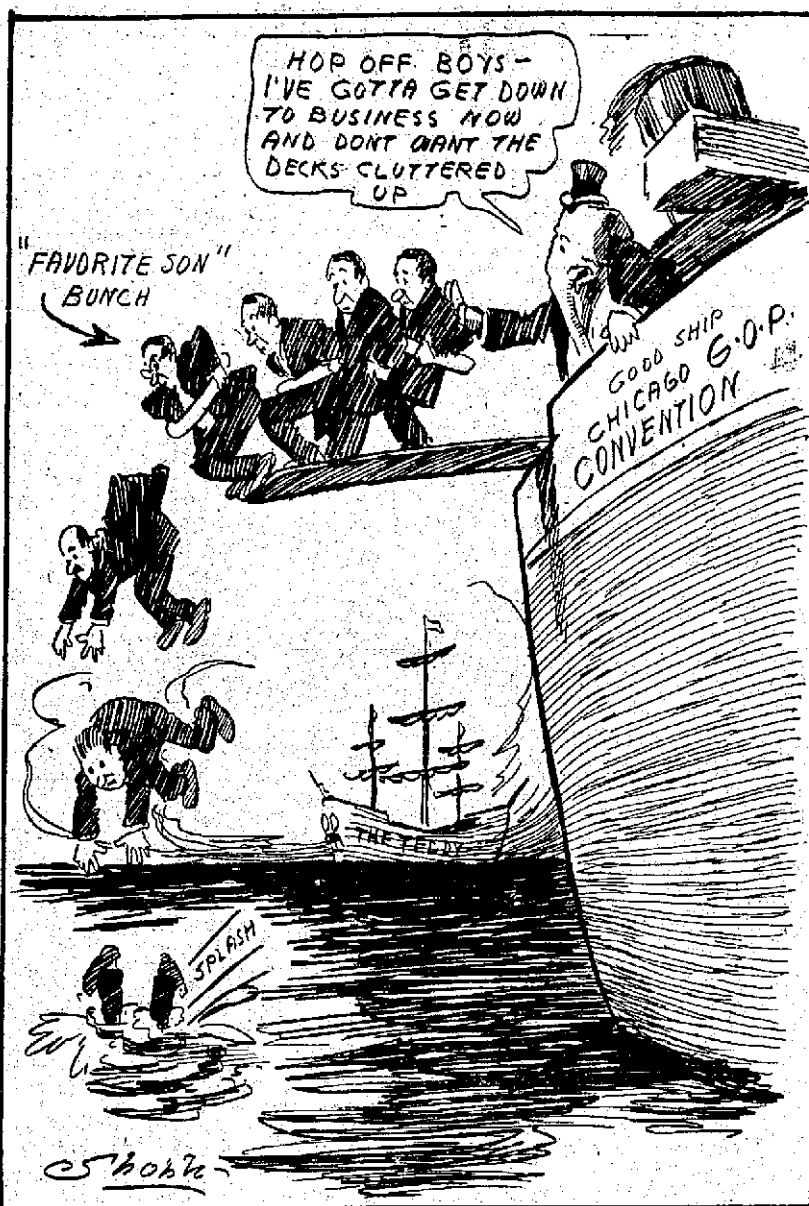

How comes it that the most peerless Progressive of them all, Mr. John Reilly remained in his tent in his home town when the idol of his dreams was sweating, perspiring and fulminating in his great, patriotic effort to save the country. Is not this treason of the deepest dye?

Oak Hill has a brick paved street and also a macadam street. The other night a big rainstorm came up and when the rain ceased falling the macadam road was a wreck, the surface having been washed away. The brick roadway stood as fine and good as before the rain. There in a few words stands the argument in favor of brick construction in order to insure permanent roads. Or rather there is no argument about it. It is the case conclusively made up and the verdict returned.

Well, anyway, we will not even have to worry the teeniest bit about who is going to preside over the convention or the platform it is to adopt when we all gather together at St. Louis next week as the free and untrammelled representatives of the great Democratic party. We are told by the veracious Associated Press that leaders at Washington have selected the chairmen and are engaged in writing the platform. So all we will have to do will be to vote eye and yell lustily at the proper time.

Men were walking the streets of Chicago all night this week, but it was impossible to tell whether they were delegates or the rear guard of the preparedness parade just getting home.—Grand Rapids Press.

ABOUT DUE TO WALK THE PLANK

THE WAY THINGS GROW

(From The Oak Hill Press.)

One day recently one of the local merchants came to us to secure some information regarding the newspapers in Scioto county. When he was told that there was but one paper in the county, he would hardly believe us—"a county as big as Scioto and a town as big as Portsmouth and only one newspaper! Now in the world does that happen?"

We answered him by stating that the one surviving newspaper had not only held its own while others went to the wall, but had actually gained in prestige, worth, and advertising, ever since it was started. The reason it was able to do this was because the men at the helm saw far ahead. They did not try to get rich quick by giving the minimum amount of news and at the same time charging the maximum advertising rate. They were looking forward to the future. When there were a few extra dollars profit the owners did not stick it down in their jeans, but put it right back into the plant in increased equipment. That policy has been followed since the very start of the business and today that paper stands head and shoulders above all newspapers published in Southern Ohio, with the possible exception of some of those published in Cincinnati. That newspaper has gained a hold upon the reading public and the advertising merchants that is so strong that the bonds cannot be broken. The policy of modest profits and steadily increased service to readers and advertisers has placed the paper above competition.

This same policy is the one that is successful in all lines of business. The fellow who attempts to give as little as possible for a certain amount of money and does nothing to set his business ahead will never attain success. It is the fellow who gives all he possibly can for every dollar spent with him and invests the surplus profits in bettering his service is the fellow that will make a success of his business every time.

Now that the Republican platform has been adopted we may expect one-half of the press to land it and the other to decry, both without reading it.

Not by way of boasting, but just in statement of a plain fact, we'll observe, no one has run across any other paper that had it on The Times, this week, in giving the big news.

The West Virginia primary ought to be sufficient to convince even William Jennings Bryan that the best of human inventions has its weak points.

They are pretty much alike. Berlin now comes forward and admits the sinking of two additional battle cruisers in the North Sea fight, which was denied before for "military reasons". May be there is some significance in the fact that no explicit denial has yet been given to the British claim that the battleship Hindenburg was also sunk.

Everyday Wisdom

By DON HEROLD

HOUSECLEANING

It is a woman's nature. We who have studied them and her, know. They seem quiet, demure, pacific, lovable, home-loving, and motherly. But they are full of dynamite. Once a year they get home-baking. Once a year a woman has to shout up her home.

A woman can clean house one week in the spring and be content to settle down and live a steady, sober Christian life the remaining fifty-one weeks of the year. First, she dismembers the attic and all the closets. She turns them inside out into the main part of the house. Then she turns all the tables and chairs upside down in the middle of the floor and jumps up and down on them and shrieks in mad housecleaning glee. Then she jerks the rug out from under the mass. This mixes everything up beyond recognition. She shrieks some more. "Ha-ha-ha-ha-ha!"

When the man-husband of the wild woman comes home at night he is put to sleep in the upstairs hall on a mattress on the floor. He goes to bed with victrola records, shoes, trees, spring hats, clothes hangers, picture books, curtain rods and chifferin castors. He knows he has married a Mrs. Jekyll and Mrs. Hyde.

As Sherman has said, "Housecleaning is awful!"

What The Fairy Queen Did

A Dainty little blue-eyed fairy home all the whole day long. You peeped out of her flower house and think that was better treatment than looked at the world. She was so pretty and sweet and everything that a fairy ought to be that you were sure the minute you saw her that she was a nice fairy—the kind of a fairy you would like to know. That is, you were sure until she spoke. Then you were sure she was not the kind of a fairy you would like to know! For what do you suppose she said? Listen!

"Oh, dear! What a horrid, tiresome world this is!" she fretted. "And I suppose I shall have to get up."

Just that way—think of it! Now of course fairies don't often talk that way. I should say not. And of course this fairy was tired from working unusually hard the evening before and she naturally did not feel like getting up. Still, that was not the way for her to talk, was it? At least the fairy queen thought it was not.

For, you must know, the fairy queen heard her and was much disappointed to find that one of her very own subjects talked in such a fashion. "It must stop that," said the fairy queen, and she flew at once over to the grumbling fairy.

"Good morning, fairy dear," said the fairy queen kindly. "What can I do for you this morning?"

"You can get me my breakfast," answered the cross fairy. "Get it for me without my moving a bit!"

And immediately, almost before the fairy finished her sentence, there was a breakfast of honey and dew right on the edge of the flower, ready for eating!

The fairy queen waited till the breakfast was all eaten up, then she said, "And now what can I do for you?"

"Do my work, so that I can stay and rest in this flower all the whole day long."

So the fairy queen, without a word, did all the fairy's work and let the grumbling fairy stay in her flower till just now.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.

O.O. MCINTYRE.

New York, June 10—The community masque at the stadium on Washington Heights seemed to tickle the critics, even if it might have gone over the heads of the populace. "Calliban by the Yellow Sands" is being produced with an infinite amount of detail.

Those who attend had to climb all the way to the Heights and sit two hours on concrete seats as hard as a banker's heart. The masque was produced by Percy MacKaye and the amphitheatre was crowded with people who wondered just what it was all about.

In the preface, Mr. MacKaye says: "Artists advocate the total elimination of speech from the theatre's art as a whole. The reason for this, I think, is because the sensibility of the artist is pre-eminently visual."

And again: "The association of ideas and emotions, which only the spoken word can evoke, is, therefore, a dramatic value which the art of the theatre cannot consistently ignore."

Get it? Of course. Simple, isn't it? And strikes us that nothing could be fairer.

A man who said he was Christoph Quigniller, of Harlem, walked up to the box office of the Globe Theatre. He said he had lived in New York twenty-two years and had never seen a moving picture show.

He said he didn't believe films were any good. "I'll tell you what I'll do, though. I'll go in and see the show. If it pleases me I'll come back and give you a half dollar. What do you say?"

The proposition was accepted. An hour later he came back to the box office. The manager of the theatre had called reporters to interview the New Yorker who had never seen a picture show.

"Well what about it?" asked the box office man.

"I liked the show all right," he said, "but I fear I cannot pay you."

"Why not?"

"Well I've lost the half dollar your press agent gave me to hand you."

The reporters slunk away into the night—the gushing of their teeth rising above the roar of Broadway traffic.

Fiction writers have long declared that the girl in New York has no chance to meet her ideal.

She marries many times beneath her station because she does not meet the proper man on account of the city's bigness.

This little pet theory was blasted to bits during the convention of clubwomen in New York during the past two weeks. Five young girls, who were with their mothers and were stopping at the Hotel Majestic, met young men at various social affairs in the hotel.

All five were engaged before they left for their homes. Two live in the South and three in the Middle-West.

Also two of the young men who proposed have established themselves in business. One has so much money he doesn't have to do anything and the other two are employed in good positions—and all are of good families.

Also it shows that the girl fresh from the smaller cities, with their simple charms, appeal very largely to the New Yorker who has a large field to choose from.

An all negro play is to be produced in New York and not one of the characters is a negro. The scenes are laid in New York and in the South. No attempt is to be made to make a burlesque out of the story. The play tells a tale of negroes in a dignified manner. Edna Ang has been selected to head the cast.

The new type of bathing suits seen at the beaches are of a zebra pattern and the stockings are of the kind that will not doubt worry Anthony Comstock's successor.

A dear, but very literal little girl, was proudly exhibiting a small dog which had recently been given her. "Father named him Plato," she said, "because he plays with the baby's toes." SCENES OF JOY CHANGE TO SORROW WHEN DEATH SUDDENLY CLAIMS WILLIAM BISHOP

Joyous scenes attending wedding festivities suddenly changed to deepest grief and sorrow when William Bishop, aged 70 years, a retired farmer, died very suddenly at his home near Buena Vista, Friday night at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Bishop's daughter, Mrs. Rosa Strupe-Watson, who at Vancouber Thursday was married to Samuel Watson, of Leander, Johnson county, Ky., had just departed from the Bishop family home with her husband for Catlettsburg en route to their future home when Mr. Bishop after briefly visiting a neighbor and while preparing to retire suffered a paralytic stroke. He had just removed his shoes when stricken and died within an hour. Although he had been in failing health of late Mr. Bishop managed to remain up and about and none seemed to be in better spirits than was he at the reception held in honor of his newly-married daughter and her husband at his home Thursday evening.

Mr. Bishop was a native of Wisconsin and came to Buena Vista from Gayandotte, W. Va., six years ago. He was a veteran of the Civil war, a member of the Buena Vista Methodist church and liked and respected by all who knew him.

He leaves to mourn his death, his widow, Mrs. Rebecca Bishop and the following children: George, Fred and Ben Bishop, steelworkers, of New Boston; Mrs. Amanda Clark, Mrs. Julia Meeling and Mrs. Minda Holland of Guyandotte, W. Va.; Mrs. Rosa Strupe-Watson, of Leander, Ky.; John Bishop, of Guyandotte and Miss Naomi Bishop, at home.

No arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral.

Claiming that her husband, Walter Cade, compelled her to surrender her savings for the purpose of gambling and playing poker, and that he was guilty of extreme cruelty, Marie Cade, through her attorneys, Blair and Kimble, filed suit for divorce Saturday in the court of common pleas. Marie Cade says she was married to the defendant January 1, 1916, and that her husband is capable of earning good wages at the Whitaker-Glessner Steel plant.

Claims Husband Used Her Savings To Gamble; Is Seeking A Divorce

A temporary injunction was allowed against the Whitaker-Glessner Steel Company by Judge Thomas, restraining the defendant from obtaining his wages.

Robert D. Lantier of 1530 Ninth street, has been sworn in as a special policeman for duty at a Chillicothe street store.

AFTER HEARING NOMINATING SPEECHES REPUBLICANS OPENED BALLOTING AT 7:45 LAST NIGHT

Coliseum, Chicago, June 10.—Nominating speeches continued throughout Friday afternoon in the Republican convention and were concluded late in the afternoon.

A demonstration was started after Senator Fall concluded his speech nominating Col. Roosevelt.

At 5:50 p. m. the crowd, responding to the chairman's appeal, quieted down, the demonstration having lasted 41 minutes, the roll call went on and North Dakota yielded to Wisconsin and Mr. B. Olbrich nominated Senator LaFollette.

The burden of Olbrich's speech was against preparedness and the galleries were disposed to jeer, but they were rapped to order. The delegates rebuked the galleries by calling to Olbrich:

"Go on, you're all right."

The disturbers took the hint and quieted down.

Olbrich finished his nominating speech of Senator LaFollette at 6:23 o'clock. There was no demonstration.

The roll call went on and for Pennsylvania, Emerson Collins presented the name of Governor Brumbaugh.

"Second" Addresses Are Limited

The roll call went on to the end without other candidates being offered. Senator Wadsworth, of New York then moved his special rule to allow five minutes for any two seconding speeches for the same candidates and two minutes each for any others. Amid shouts of "Good, good" the rule was adopted.

Chairman Harding then ruled the seconding speeches in order. Delegate Weinberg of Frederick, Md., made a speech seconding Governor Whitman's nomination of Justice Hughes.

Delegate C. W. Fulton of Oregon, also seconded the nomination of the Justice. Judge Bynum of North Carolina, and E. W. Britt of California, made seconding speeches for Elihu Root.

E. N. Meeker, of Elizabeth City, N. C., made a seconding speech for Former Senator Burton. Frank R. Stewart of Arizona, also seconded the Burton nomination.

Then former Representative Thomas Settle, of North Carolina, seconded the nomination of Senator Weeks of Massachusetts.

Former Representative McGuire of Oklahoma, also seconded the nomination of Senator Weeks, and so did W. O. Emery, a negro of Georgia.

Edward P. Morrow of Kentucky, seconded the nomination of Fairbanks.

Ernest London of Minnesota, seconded the nomination of Senator Cummins.

Former Senator S. E. Wilson of South Dakota, also seconded the Cummins nomination.

Delegates Did Not Want To Eat

The crowd was getting restless and a delegate demanded to know whether there would be a recess for dinner.

"No," roared the delegates. The chairman announced his intention of recognizing ten seconding speakers for Roosevelt and introduced Ex-Senator Marion Butler of North Carolina.

A. M. Stevenson, "Big Steve" of Colorado, was next recognized for the Roosevelt second.

There was a wild demonstration for the Colonel as "Big Steve" closed and Chairman Harding announced that he proposed to recognize nine others to second the Roosevelt nomination.

Former Senator Marion Butler, North Carolina was the first of the nine.

Robert M. Pollock of North Dakota, seconded the nomination of LaFollette and W. S. Vane of Pennsylvania, seconded the nomination of Brumbaugh. Thus the Roosevelt speeches were interrupted.

Vin. Potter of Pennsylvania, former ambassador to Italy and Henry A. Whitaker, of Maryland, had spoken for the Colonel when the Roosevelt speeches were interrupted. The seconding speeches were then closed without hearing the Roosevelt ten and the balloting began at 7:45 p. m.

REPUBLICANS ADJOURN TO MEET AT 11 A. M.

Chicago, June 10.—On the only two ballots taken last night in the Republican National convention, Justice Hughes led the field and gained strength. His supporters, confident that another ballot would give him a majority, resisted adjournment, but the convention, tired and worn with the continued ten-hour session, was determined to rest at eleven o'clock and adjourned until eleven o'clock today.

It was the first time since 1888 that a republican convention has taken more than one ballot to choose a presidential nominee.

On the first ballot Justice Hughes polled 255 1/2 votes. He got 42 from his own state and aside from Oregon and Florida, the remainder were largely scattering. On the second ballot he increased to 328 1/2 votes. It requires 494 votes to nominate. The total vote of the convention is 987.

Colonel Roosevelt's topmost strength in the first day's balloting was 81 votes. Besides Justice Hughes, Roosevelt and Charles W. Fairbanks, of all the eighteen men who had votes on the first ballot, alone made an increase on the second. The expected demonstration for Col. Roosevelt when he was nominated by Senator Fall lasted 41 minutes and broke the record for this convention. All observers agreed that it was largely a gallery demonstration and that participation was scattering from the delegates' section. The Fairbanks demonstration ran up 25 minutes, the Burton demonstration lasted 34 minutes and the Hughes demonstration lasted 20 minutes. On the first ballot the delegates followed their instructions, voting for favorite sons and primary choices. Senator Weeks got 105; Elihu Root 103; Cummins 85; Fairbanks 74 1/2; Sherman 66; Roosevelt 65; Knox 36; Henry Ford got Michigan's 32 votes. By instruction. Former President Taft got 14 from Texas and the scattering included complimentary votes for Borah, Willis and McCall and the instructed vote for other candidates.

On the second ballot Michigan turned 30 over to Hughes and gave Col. Roosevelt 2. McCall of Massachusetts turned his vote to the justice amid great applause. Senator Lodge, who had nominated Senator Weeks, turned his vote to Col. Roosevelt; W. Murray Crane announced his vote for Hughes; Missouri gave 8 of her 23 to Justice Hughes; New Jersey gave him 16. The New York delegation vote on the second ballot stood: Hughes 43; Root 42 and Roosevelt 2. Pennsylvania's second ballot was: Knox 36; Roosevelt 22; Wanaamaker 5; Hughes 8; Dupont 2; Root 1 and one not voting.

Before the second ballot was taken, one of the favorite sons—Governor Brumbaugh—withdrew and proposed the nomination of Col. Roosevelt. The other favorite sons remained through the balloting. On the second ballot one vote was cast for Major General Leonard Wood and one for Chairman Harding.

Today the Hughes supporters predict they will continue to draw strength and nominate their candidate.

"We are growing," declare the Hughes people.

dorsement they may turn back to Mr. Root, who is probably the first choice of more delegates than any other candidate. He did not, on the first ballot, receive half as many votes as Mr. Hughes and his vote fell off on the second ballot, this, however, does not indicate the real sentiment of the convention, it indicates rather the desire of the republicans to conciliate the progressives. This is a Root convention but the delegates would rather win with some one else than lose with Root and they realize that the fight will be hard enough even with a re-united party.

June 10th MAY PROVE THE FATEFUL DAY for the divided and disaffected members of the once proud and triumphant republican party, it may see a re-union which will convert the two conventions into a one, at least, it may see action taken which will arouse a bitterness exceeding the bitterness of four years ago.

Auditorium Hall, Chicago, June 10.—That Colonel Roosevelt had been advised and approved this plan of Progressive leaders to withhold nominations in the Progressive convention until the Republican convention had taken at least two ballots, was stated by Progressive leaders last night.

MANY LIVES LOST WHEN AN ITALIAN TRANSPORT SINKS

Rome, June 10.—(Via Paris).—The Italian transport Principe Umberto has been torpedoed with a loss of a large number of soldiers, according to an official statement issued by the admiralty today.

The steamer, accompanied by two other transports conveying troops and war materials and escorted by destroyers, was attacked by two Austrian submarines. The Principe Umberto sank a few moments after being struck and although prompt help was rendered by the other ships it is believed half the troops on board have perished. The exact loss has not yet been established.

GERARD REPUDIATES PEACE INTERVIEW

Berlin, June 10.—(Wireless to Sayville, N. Y.).—The American ambassador, James W. Gerard, has repudiated an interview recently attributed to him on the subject of President Wilson's peace efforts.

According to a statement given out by the news agency today, a manuscript containing a copy of the spurious interview was submitted to Mr. Gerard, with the idea that it was to have been published in the National Zeitung, sanction it. The statement follows:

"Ambassador Gerard stated to a staff member of the Vossische Zeitung that he never made the utterances in regard to President Wilson's proposed peace mediation attributed to him and quoted in the Reichstag. The conservative leader, Count Von Westarp, said that Mr. Gerard had announced President Wilson's intention to mediate for peace, and for this purpose to exert pressure on the belligerents, which he (Count Von Westarp) had desired that he have a spurious interview published sometime ago by the National Zeitung. At that time Mr. Gerard told a staff member of the National Zeitung that he was unable to give any information. On seeing the manuscript, Mr. Gerard declared that it was untrue and therefore withheld the manuscript.

"Mr. Gerard makes formal denial of the spurious interview."

The statement department at Washington a few days ago cabled to Mr. Gerard an inquiry whether he was responsible for two alleged interviews on the subject of peace which were credited to him in Berlin.

HIRAM JOHNSON REVOLTS AGAINST WAITING ON G. O. P.

Chicago, June 10.—The Progressive national convention adjourned last night without nominating Theodore Roosevelt, but with every indication that it will do so today. It was on the verge of doing it yesterday. The last time was last night when several delegations started a demonstration, which threatened to get beyond control and again when Governor Hiram Johnson took charge of the stage with a fiery call to arms.

"I talk to you now with a very full heart. I tell you that if it were not for the directions of the man at Oyster Bay not a minute would pass before we would do our duty and nominate him. I am not in accord with those who seek this splendid body of men here waiting action by those who rob them for Hughes control."

The convention greeted this with wild cheers.

It was with difficulty that the other leaders prevented a stampede and prevailed upon the convention to convene until today without action.

Governor Johnson's most striking declaration was:

"You were present four years ago. The glory and the exaltation of those days. Oh! the glory of it all, my friends! And now God help us—tonight finds us sitting at the feast of thanks—Oh God help us!—of Reed Smoot and Murray Crane."

The convention broke into wild cheering at this.

"I demand the right," continued Governor Johnson, "the Progressive right of making my small protest against what has been done today and the last two days with the Progressive party. After the next twenty-four hours, we'll stand up again and you and I, my friends, will preserve the Progressive party of the United States!"

He declared his belief that Hughes would be nominated, regardless of any eventualities.

Waiting On Word From Roosevelt

However, if Colonel Roosevelt, at Oyster Bay, will say the word, he can still have a tremendous effect upon the situation and not a few are hopefully awaiting a pronouncement from Sagamore Hill. Numbered among these are the various managers for "favorite sons" candidates, who have joined forces and who control a majority of the votes on the floor of the convention. They were strong enough last night to force an adjournment of the convention against the efforts of the Hughes men to keep it in session.

Justice Hughes with the 328 1/2 votes, which he received on the second ballot last night, started the day as the strongest probability. His opponents maintained that the adjournment of the conclusion of the second ballot spells defeat for the former New Yorker, but the Hughes supporters insisted that they already had taken a great advantage which last night's adjournment cannot affect in any degree. In addition the Hughes managers say that no matter what Colonel Roosevelt says now, the Colonel will get behind Hughes, once the latter is nominated.

gallery, however, had its chance later when it applauded a reference to Roosevelt while the minds of the delegates were so employed with serious matters that they did not seem to hear his name.

The roll call developed just what had been forecast in the press reports. Justice Hughes leads, his vote rising from two hundred and fifty-three and a half on the first ballot to three hundred and twenty-eight and a half on the second ballot. Mr. Roosevelt's vote rose from sixty-five on the first ballot to eighty-one on the second. After the second ballot the Republican convention adjourned until eleven o'clock Saturday, and the Progressive convention immediately did likewise. This gave the night for a renewal of the efforts of the two conference committees to get together. It now seems certain that Mr. Justice Hughes can have the Republican nomination if he wants it, unless Colonel Roosevelt suggests the name of some one else whom he would prefer. There is little doubt that Mr. Roosevelt is in a position to name the candidate if he will name a man reasonably satisfactory to the Republican delegates. But so far, he has not intimated a choice. It is equally certain that he can have the Progressive nomination if he wants it.

But a good deal of doubt is expressed as to his willingness to accept a nomination from one convention only. It seems probable that Hughes will be nominated by the republicans before many more ballots are taken if he is willing to accept the nomination, but doubt is expressed as to his willingness to be the candidate in case there are two republican tickets. Justice Hughes had been considered as a compromise and his chief strength rests upon the belief that he will be more acceptable to the progressives than any other man who can secure a majority of the republican delegates if the republicans finally find that it is necessary to make their fight without progressive endorsement they may turn back to Mr. Root, who is probably the first choice of more delegates than any other candidate. He did not, on the first ballot, receive half as many votes as Mr. Hughes and his vote fell off on the second ballot, this, however, does not indicate the real sentiment of the convention, it indicates rather the desire of the republicans to conciliate the progressives. This is a Root convention but the delegates would rather win with some one else than lose with Root and they realize that the fight will be hard enough even with a re-united party.

June 10th MAY PROVE THE FATEFUL DAY for the divided and disaffected members of the once proud and triumphant republican party, it may see a re-union which will convert the two conventions into a one, at least, it may see action taken which will arouse a bitterness exceeding the bitterness of four years ago.

Auditorium Hall, Chicago, June 10.—That Colonel Roosevelt had been advised and approved this plan of Progressive leaders to withhold nominations in the Progressive convention until the Republican convention had taken at least two ballots, was stated by Progressive leaders last night.
